VENDOR HIGHLIGHT

Barnard-Griffin Winery

We are very excited to announce our newest partner- Barnard Griffin Winery!

Barnard Griffin has pioneered quality wine production in Washington State since 1983. With Rob Griffin as Head Winemaker and his wife Deborah Barnard as Co-Owner, Barnard Griffin is a family operation, continuing to this day with their daughter, Megan Hughes as Second-Generation Winemaker. Decisions at Barnard Griffin are driven by Rob and Deborah's lifelong dream to make world-class wines on their terms: a desire to put the absolute best wine in everyone's glass, regardless of their budget. Barnard Griffin strives to make exceptional wines that speak to the Columbia Valley—a journey which starts with having the highest standards for growers and the winery's production.

A note from Tom Champine, Barnard-Griffin National Sales Manager

"I hope you are doing well, and gearing up for a robust season. These early autumn days are beautiful; as I write this it's 84 and sunny, and Crush 2022 is in full swing at Barnard Griffin. The winery is buzzing with activity, and our new (third!) tasting room in the Schoolhouse District in Woodinville is actively under construction. Certain to be a stunner, I'll send pictures next time."

Fun Facts About Il Borro Wines

- The term "Il Borro" is actually a Tuscan word that refers to a ravine. Since the ancient medieval hamlet located on the Il Borro estate is surrounded by a ravine on all sides.....it only makes sense that this magical place has adopted this name as a specific geographic identifier to its location.
- Established more than one thousand years ago, Il Borro has ancient and mysterious origins, now lost in the mists of time. The estate's event-filled history would go on to include some of Europe's noblest families: the Medici Tornaquinici of Florence; the Torriani of Milan; the prince of Hohenlohe Waldenburg, and finally, from 1904, the Savoy dynasty. In the 1950's, Il Borro passed to Prince Amedeo Duke of Savoy-Aosta, and in 1993 the Duke sold the entire property to Ferruccio Ferragamo.

A Note From the Vin Fraiche Wine Group

"Our last day of Harvest is today September 30, this is the earliest we've ever completed harvest in our 10-year history. For all the wineries of Vin Fraiche we have harvested from a combined 12 vineyards and are looking forward to these vintages. Cheers to 2022 harvest!"
