You are invited to join the Family
for a Repast at Mokanna Lodge, 4925
Clarcona Ocoee Road, Orlando 32810

*Yet we have this assurance:
Those who belong to God will live; their bodies will rise again! Those who sleep in the earth will rise up and sing for joy!*

– Isaiah 26:19 NLT

*“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there will be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more
pain; for the former things are passed away.”*

– Revelation 21:4

Words of Appreciation

The Family of Johnny B. Allen wishes to express their deepest appreciation and sincere gratitude to those who have offered their prayers, support, and well wishes during our time of bereavement. Thank you for your love and strength which, along with the strength of God, has helped to sustain us through our sorrow.

May God continue to bless you!

We take comfort in 1 Corinthians 2:9...

“Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man, the of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love him.”

A Legacy™

a heritage: character qualities, memoirs . . .

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die, a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted....a time to weep, and a time to laugh: a time to mourn, and a time to dance..."

—Ecclesiastes 3:1, 2, 4

MR. Johnny B. Allen

Johnny B Allen was born on January 21, 1937 in Shorterville, Alabama to his proud parents, Jessie and Eunice Mae Allen. Johnny was the second oldest of 6 children born to this union. Being raised on the family's farm helped Johnny early on prove to be family- oriented and very responsible, as Johnny supported and helped his mother provide for and take care of his siblings.

On February 8, 1964 Johnny married Nellia Dean, and to this union 4 children were born. Johnny moved his young family to Dothan where he landed a job with Pepsi Cola. Then in 1966 he and his family relocated to Orlando, Florida where his father had already settled. In Orlando he worked for Royal Crown / RC Cola for many years, before stepping out on faith to become an entrepreneur. He had an uncle who was a tile contractor, and because Johnny was not afraid of hard work, he taught Johnny the trade in which he excelled and became known as a master craftsman with anointed hands.

As an artisan he took much pride in all his hands found to do, and was deemed a perfectionist by those who knew and loved him. Later in life Johnny accepted work with Orange County Public Schools where he retired and spent more time doing some of the things he really enjoyed doing like working on cars, playing pool and fishing.

In business Johnny will forever be remembered for his hard work ethic, earning and keeping a good reputation, after all, that's how he grew his business – by word of mouth. He had a special taste for dressing immaculate with shined shoes and pressed pants. Johnny was a stickler for a well-running car, that must be clean inside and out. As a matter of fact some of the lessons he taught his children included the following quotes:

"Clean your car" and, when playing checkers: "If you think long, you'll think wrong!" Johnny was just an old-school man of honor, whose tired hands have now found rest.

He was preceded in death by his: parents – Jessie Allen and Eunice Mae M. Allen; and siblings – Gladys (Ernest) Berry, Willie James (Natharee) Allen, and Eunice Allen Brown.

He leaves behind many memories to be cherished by his: son – Johnny Allen, Jr.; and daughters – Lisa Allen-(John) Richardson, Nicole Allen-(Rodney) Sinkfield and Denna Allen-(Walter) Lewis; grandchildren – Ashley Allen-(Alexander) Aldridge, Patrick Allen-Lewis, David Richardson, Matthew Richardson, and Lauryn Sinkfield;

siblings – Samuel Allen, Ronnie (Yvette) Allen and Sue Vonne (Walter) Parrish;

his ex-wife and the mother of his children – Nellia Dean Allen-Hagans, and a host of other relatives and many friends.

Dad was last a member of River of Life Christian Center of Orlando.

"Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the House of the LORD forever!"

—from Psalm 23
