A Legacy™

a heritage: character qualities, memoirs . . .

Kattie was born in Damusa, Georgia on September 13, 1954 to her proud parents, Cherry Hall and Robert Graham. She was their 5th child of 8. When she was a little girl she and her family relocated to Central Florida where she attended Orange County Public Schools to include Jones High. Kattie was an excellent soul food cook, a skill she learned from her mother, and she was an excellent mother to 11 children that she raised.

Everyone will share the story of Your wonderful goodness; they will sing with joy about Your righteousness.

– Psalm 145:7

She was no stranger to hard work and worked at Sunland Mental Hospital back in the day before building a career in the hospitality industry. When she was home she’d cook and clean and took much joy in feeding everyone. Kattie’s southern soul food kitchen boasted of all things “southern cooking”...but her favorite meal personally was Blue Crabs. Hot, cold and at anytime, Kattie loved, loved, loved herself some Blue Crabs.

She enjoyed music; as a matter of fact, music was her everything. She loved collecting jewelry. There was always laughter when Kattie was around— she was known for her keen sense of humor, and being a straight up “trash talker.” Her mantra in life was “Blonds have more fun!” and she wore her short, blond hair with much pride and flair.

“Don’t call me Grandma!”

[But she was EVERYONE’s Mama; even her siblings referred to her as “mother!”]

She was the Candy Lady, the neighborhood Grandma, and loved taking care of EVERYBODY...and yet she never got anybody’s name right. LOL!

Kattie was a woman with a BIG heart and hard-working hands. She loved her grandchildren and everybody knew her “ride and die” was Dream. She even raised her GREAT-grandchildren.

Psalms 23 was her go-to Scripture, as were Psalms 31:24, Psalm 28:7 and Psalm 145:18. She was a woman of deep faith, having learned how to lean and depend on Jesus, as she recognized that she was everything to everybody.

Kattie was preceded in death by her parents and her brothers: Riley “Bo,” Robert “Rob,” and Tommy “Tat.”

She leaves to cherish many precious memories of a life well-lived: 5 birth children: Richard, Jason, Lee, Sherry, and Natalie, and 6 children she raised like her own: Timothy, Larry, Stacey, Natasha, Dream, and Richard III “Scooter”; siblings – Annie Jewel Griffin, Larry Graham, Alice Hall, and James Hall; 28 grandchildren; 27 great grandchildren, and a host of nieces and nephews, in-laws, cousins, other relatives and many friends
