

Name: Joshua Guy

WWI

Born in 1892, upon his return from the great war, he built a house, which is still standing and was occupied by Adella Peach in "old Arnold's Cove". He married Eliza Jessie Peach. His marriage suffered the same fate as his older brothers. Both Eliza and their infant died in childbirth. Joshua sold his house to John Peach and moved to New York.

Little of him is known since then. Fellow veteran, Nelson Adams and his sister Alice visited him at his home in New York a few years later. He had remarried and had a son. It was a disappointing visit, according to Alice, as Joshua seemed disinterested and unwilling to listen or talk about the news from back home. He never returned back home to Newfoundland.
