

February 7, 2019

WCC

Chili Cookoff Hosted by Gourmet Department

Winners 3rd place Bea Newell, 2nd place winner and 1st place Liz Callaway with Gourmet Department Chairwoman Phyllis Robinson and our esteemed judges.

Judges Gay Ingegneri, owner of Cranbury Inn and Elicio Puma, Chef at Cranbury Inn and Jennifer Diamond, WCC member with a Culinary background tasted and tabulated.

Nine chili dishes competed for top prize.

Chips, corn bread, sour cream, scallions and cheese toppings and desserts. Yum!

March 13, 2019 Making posies for the Elms.

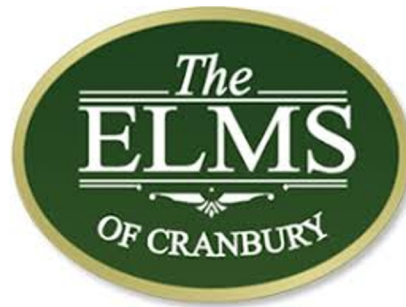

WCC

Conservation & Garden Hosts.

② Add our eager club members...

① Start with fake flowers, laundry detergent caps, florist foam and small rocks...

③ Serve great finger food...

④ Show off your creative skills...

⑤ Results: 73 finished arrangements delivered to a smiling Arvid, Activities Director at The Elms of Cranbury

Carol Nelson spoke about the Underground Railroad and displayed her Quilt and one that her mother made. Carol, a prolific quilter is a resident of Hightstown, the President of the Hightstown Woman's Club, a member of the Friday Club and the Hightstown - East Windsor Historical Society.

WCC

Her Mother's Blue Sun Bonnet Quilt

A display of books about Harriet Tubman and the Underground Railroad.

Carol's Underereground Railroad Quilt

Drama & Literature Hosts - April 3, 2018
The Underground Railroad Quilts

2nd VP Diana Wiebers and Cookie Johnson of the Membership Committee welcome returning member Anne Huston (third from the right) and new member Helene Hughes (far right), as their sponsors look on.