High School Scholarship recipient, John Kinney

John is known to friends and family as JP. He is a senior at Princeton High School. He has a rescue dog named Miley.

As a child, JP, had to stay in the hospital many times because of a rare bone disease and he still needs to be there for regular infusions and testing. He decided to combine his love of animals with the importance of reading to create a way to raise the spirits of children staying in the hospital. He created a website Books & Barks, where children can watch kids and their dogs read stories. Check out <https://www.booksandbarks.org>.

JP will be studying at Lafayette College.

JP and his family along with WCC 1st VP, Debbie Taylor who introduced him.
