REMEMBRANCE DAY

Remembrance Day is a significant national holiday observed on November 11th each year. It is a day for Canadians to remember and honor the men and women who have served and continue to serve in the Canadian Armed Forces, particularly those who have made the ultimate sacrifice in the line of duty. After WWI, Poppies have since become a symbol of respect for those who served and died for their country in Canada.

Meet Page Calicdan

Sales and Finance Specialist at the Royal Auto Group in Yorkton

In 2017, Page made a life-altering decision to leave the Philippines and embark on a new chapter in Canada. His professional background was rooted in the field of psychology, where he had been a respected Psychology Professor in the Philippines, helping countless students understand the human mind and behaviour.

Upon arriving in Yorkton, Saskatchewan, Page embraced the opportunity to build a new career. With a strong work ethic and adaptability, he transitioned into the world of sales and finance. Today, Page is a Sales and Finance Advisor at the Royal Auto Group, where he leverages his interpersonal skills and expertise to guide customers through the process of acquiring their dream vehicles.

In addition to his multifaceted career and creative pursuits, Page is a devoted family man. He shares his life with a lovely wife and three cherished children who provide support and motivation on his incredible journey.

Page's passion extends beyond the confines of the workplace. Music has always been a profound love in his life. To nurture his artistic side, Page has dedicated his Facebook and YouTube channels to create soulful cover songs and engaging podcasts. His heartfelt renditions of popular tunes have garnered a loyal following, making him a prominent figure in the online music and podcasting community.

Page's journey is a testament to the power of adaptability, determination and his story is an inspiring example of reinvention and the pursuit of one's true calling.
