CURRENT and/or PAST DOGS

Have you lived with or are currently living with a Labrador? Y / N

If this is your first Labrador, we are here for you!

We would recommend doing some research to make sure this breed will fit into your lifestyle AND that you can offer the pup/dog the physical and mental enrichment it will need.

We have a great training program on line and in person. We can also recommend other professional, certified training and behavior consultants if needed.

Do you have any current dogs living with you? Y / N Breed or Mix _____

Do you have any cats living with you Y / N How many and age _____

Do you have any small animals living with you? Hamsters, guinea pigs, birds etc. _____

DIET

We currently feed our dogs a raw diet. We do not expect our puppy people to feed raw, however it does have many proven benefits to a kibble only diet. One benefit that we appreciate is that a raw diet cuts down on shedding...as Labradors do shed.

If you will be feeding your pup a raw diet, please let me know. I have written up a guide to raw feeding that I can share. Pups that will be on a kibble diet will need to be switched to kibble gradually, once they are in your home. Please let me know if you will be switching your pup over to kibble so I can advise on how to make the transition as easy on your pup as possible.

ALL OF OUR LITTERS ARE RAISED ON RAW.

If you are unsure about a raw diet for your pup but would like more information, please let me know and I will email information about raw feeding or we can chat on the phone.

TRAINING

I (Shannon) am a certified professional trainer who graduated with distinction through the Karen Pryor Academy for Animal Training & Behavior; as well as a Puppy Start Right Instructor, Canine First Aid Instructor as well as many courses, clinics, workshops etc.

I am currently building an online training program for puppies on the Raven Works Labradors website. Once the puppy program is complete, I will build future courses that can be done on line no matter where you are at or in person if you are in our area.

If you would like to do in person training and are not sure who to go with. I can help you find a certified professional trainer in your area. I have an array of fellow class mates or trainers with similar education all over Canada.

For all Raven Works puppy families, we have a Facebook group for general puppy information and guidance as well as training questions you may have. It will be a great place to stay connected, learn, share pictures or get in contact with another Raven Works puppy family near you.

This group, is not a mandatory group. If you choose not to join that is A okay with us.*

Raven Works Labradors Application

We DO NOT condone any aversive training tools such as, prong collars, choke collars or shock collars. There are many alternatives. If you are having management or training issues bring them to my attention immediately. Prevention is the best course. The faster I can help you the better for everyone and puppy.

If you feel you have to turn to any of these aversive products it is because you feel stuck and are unsure how to train or counter condition behaviors. PLEASE don't let it get to this point. Reach out to me at any time for guidance!

Please Initial that you have read and agree not to use any of these products. Initial _____

SPAYING & NEUTERING

You are purchasing a NON breeding puppy from Raven Works Labradors. This means that at no time will this pup be breed-able.

It is scientifically proven that Labrador dogs take up to two years to physically mature. This means their bones, growth plates, joints, ligaments are NOT fused together properly until they are two and over.

We prefer you wait until two years to spay or neuter however we are in agreement to spay or neuter after eighteen months of age but no earlier unless it is medically deemed an emergency to spay or neuter early.

Please sign is agreement to NOT breeding your Raven Works puppy / dog.
