Becky Ray, has worked in High-Risk businesses such as Rail, Construction, Manufacturing and Military Aviation for over 24 years. First as a Forklift Truck Engineer, then as a Health & Safety Leader before embracing a consulting career in Culture Change Leadership, as she is super enthusiastic about helping businesses and Leaders be their best!

Becky has a unique ability to understand the context of an Organisational Culture and give a voice to the workforce and take this to the ear of the Leadership Team. She is the conduit for understanding and change and empowered Leaders to make these changes with lasting results and she can do the same with you.

She will support you, lift you up, but will challenge you and ask you to do some self reflection too, which at times can be uncomfortable, but its the only way to grow. So if you are ready to take the leap you have found the right programme and the right mentor.
