I think then we can assert some pressure accordingly. If you are available, let's talk early Monday. I am working on an OCR project and then would like to try to leave a couple of hours early and clear my mind from all this stuff.

The District is the intended third party beneficiary, since the MCA public school is operated pursuant to a contract with the District.

To what degree would you consider us a third party beneficiary on the contract to be able to assert that she needs to work with Hillsdale?

So, inter alia, Kelly can get her own principal in now without input from Hillsdale (see 3(a)), or any of the other Hillsdale requirements for that matter.

I am still on the conference call. Relative to Conrad Wilkomm, my notes show that Mr. Arnold informed us that they were considering former CCSO YRD Mr. Van Gelder along with Mr. Billeca. Is he now being excluded, if so, why?
