

CACS ALTERNATIVE SUMMER READING ASSIGNMENT
LITERATURE
GRADES 9-12
2023-2024 SCHOOL YEAR

Your project is due on the first day of school. Failure to turn this assignment in on the first day of school will result in a penalty of ten percentage points per school day that the project is late.

ELIGIBILITY: In order to be eligible for the alternative summer reading assignment, you must complete and pass a college level ELA related course during the summer months. If you do not pass the course, then you will be required to complete the traditional summer reading project. Additionally, this option is available for English/Language Arts courses ONLY. If this is something that you are planning on doing, please be sure to get approval from me first, so that there are no misunderstandings on the first day of school. You can reach me by email at jfinney@clearfieldchristian.com.

OVERALL ASSIGNMENT: Please type a one page summary telling about the course that you took. You can include information about the material that you read, assignments and projects that you completed, your favorite and least favorite parts of the course, and what you learned. This assignment must be double spaced, 12 point font size, and in Times New Roman font type. Your paper should be organized and include an introduction, body, and conclusion. You must include a heading that has your name, the date, the class name, and the title of the assignment. In addition to your paper, you must include something that shows your final course grade to show that you completed and passed the course.
