

Resources for Refugee Sponsorship

Unfortunately, The Sanctuary Network is NOT a registered organization that sponsors Refugee Placement/Sponsorship in the United States. Below are resources to assist potential Refugees looking for sponsorship in North America.

The United States

United States Immigration Refugee Program

Information for those wanting to apply for Refugee Status in the United States.

<https://www.uscis.gov/humanitarian/refugees-and-asylum/refugees>

Welcome Corps

US governmental program allowing for individuals, groups, and Universities to privately sponsor Refugees from all over the world for resettlement in the United States through the US State Dependents Refugee Admission Program (USRAP). Refugee Recipients can request connection with sponsors.

<https://welcomecorps.org/>

Canada

Canada immigration and Citizenship Refugee Program

Application process and information for obtaining Refugee Status in Canada.

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/refugees/claim-protection-inside-canada.html>

Canada Private Sponsorship of Refugee Program

Governmental Programs allowing agreement holders (usually nonprofit agencies or churches) to privately sponsor an adult or family for Refugee services in Canada. Searchable database by Canadian Territory for recipients.

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/refugees/help-outside-canada/private-sponsorship-program/agreement-holders/holders-list.html>

NOTE: This document does not reflect or constitute legal advice. This is informational resources made available by The Sanctuary Network Organizations on the basis set out at sanctuarynet.org. Your use of this document does not create an attorney-client relationship with the organization or any of its lawyers or staff.