

The Week in Review

AFTER LISTENING practically every Sunday to the radio program from Fort Dix we had the misfortune to miss it last Sunday, the very day Ben Rabinowitz made his radio debut. Winter woollens that had to be put away in the attic of our home kept us busy just at the time the program was on, and were so sore when we heard what we'd missed! Second hand reports tell us that said Benny has a good mike voice and that he spoke his ambition to serve with the Adjutant General's Department (if you don't know, that's the legal end of the Army) and was anxious to get into a uniform. (Maybe the Army waited for you to lose a little girl Ben before they started to fit you—and how about that VERY corny gag you pulled in telling about a friend who expects to name his new baby Weatherstripping for keeping him out of the draft?)

Continuing on the draft, Clem Schwartz goes next week and he's another one we'll miss, curly hair and all, and we understand there'll be a very lonesome and broken heart up Elizabeth way, although her name isn't Elizabeth. Used to live in Carteret... trimmed in ruffles and tucks. Her ceiling in a long time is this one: "I want to take this opportunity of thanking you for sending me gratis each week a copy of the Carteret Press."

"It's a genuine pleasure to be kept abreast of the happenings back in Carteret even though 350 miles away serving as a soldier of Uncle Sam at Camp Lee, Va. Reading the home town news makes me forget momentarily I am away from my home."

"Rest assured I shall never forget your thoughtfulness."

"Sincerely,
"Joseph Kady."

For efficiency and general niceness in handling publicity we give top honors to the Lone Star Club, especially its Ambrose Fogys. Believe it or not he forwarded all the details of a wedding, gals' dresses, flowers, decorations and all, and got it straight! Even men reporters don't do that well, usually...

GENERAL INFO PICKED up here and there: That Townsend King, about whom we had a feature story a couple of weeks back didn't have such good luck airplane hitch-hiking back to the coast and his ship, the St. Louis; took him eight days to get as far as Denver, where he took a train the rest of the way, but he made it and it was some experience; tough luck is dogging nice little Jimmy Phillips—after being so sick when he was nearly ready to come home another patient nearby came down with chicken pox so he and others exposed, had to be quarantined and he came home later than he hoped; including the Recreation tennis courts is a good idea and things about the playground look fine, all trimmed and slicked up; wasn't it grand to have Jimmy Ryan win the marbles championship? Congratulations young feller, and we know your friends are just as happy as you; Rory, Father McLennan's beautiful setter now recovered from an operation on one big brown eye and without a doubt complete dictator of St. Joseph's Rectory; the fine job Harriette LeBow does every year on the vocational guidance work at the high school; the sudden list of accidents among the school athletes after Carteret has been so free of such catastrophes over a long period; the growing blood donors' list for possible needs—is your name there?

Worth consideration by every parent in Carteret is a difficulty met almost daily by Lieut. Shanley and his Safety Patrol boys. This group of guardians drill school children constantly to cross only at the crosswalks where patrol boys are stationed. Then along comes a parent accompanying a child and leads him or her through some short cut. It's only a small thing of course, and saves but a few steps, but it certainly has a bad effect on the youngsters whom Mr. Shanley and his helpers try so hard to keep in line...

MANY PLAY CARDS
CARTERET—Despite a threatening storm a large number of persons went to Lutheran Hall last night for the card party given by the Carteret Republican Clubs with Mrs. Joseph G. Jomo as chairman. Over 10 awards were made.

HAURY, CUTTER DIFFER ON VEHICLE CHOICE

Relief Board Says Employees Underpaid And Asks Raises

CARTERET—Voting an emergency appropriation of $2,500, which is to be included in the 1942 budget, members of the Borough Council Wednesday night authorized the purchase of two radio-equipped police cars. Some discussion took place about the choice of vehicles, Councilman Frank Haury preferring motorcycles as better serving the need here, while Councilman Clifford L. Cutter, chairman of the police committee, felt the radio equipped automobiles more advantageous.

Mr. Cutter, who presided in the absence of Mayor Joseph W. Mittuch, said the police department recommended the cars. Mr. Haury cited traffic control as being the borough's main present problem, and with this Mr. Cutter agreed, adding that he felt the radio cars will do the job properly.

PERTH AMBOY GIRL IS BRIDE OF SZABO

Ceremony Is Performed By Dr. Vincze, Formerly Local Pastor

CARTERET—Miss Helen Arty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Arty of 285 Goodwin Street, Perth Amboy, became the bride of Lester Szabo, son of Mrs. L. H. Szabo of Atlantic Street, at a pretty ceremony performed Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Hungarian Reformed Church in Perth Amboy. The marriage was performed by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Charles Vincze, formerly of Carteret, and the wedding music was by Mrs. S. Novak, organist, and Mrs. Wilhelmina Danishevski, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Afterward there was a reception at the Hotel Hungaria. The church decorations were of pink and white carnations, placed about the altar.

The bride wore white satin, made princess style and trimmed in lace, with a long train, and her veil of illusion tulle fell from a tiara caught with orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias, sweet peas and gypsophila.

Sisters Attend
Her two sisters, Miss Margaret Arty and Mrs. John Both attended her. Miss arty wore peach chiffon, trimmed in lace, and carried a bouquet of talisman roses, orchid

New Books At Library

By Loretto M. Nevill
CARTERET—MOUNTAIN MEADOW, by John Buchan, a new book at the borough library, records the last appearance of Sir Edward Leithen, and is a fitting and noble close to the saga of those high-spirited men who ranged themselves around Richard Hannay.

Given but a year to live, and resolved to 'die on his feet,' Leithen jumps at an invitation to come to America in search of Francis Gaillard, key figure in New York banking circles, who has mysteriously disappeared. The trail leads from New York to Quebec, then far into the Canadian wilderness, and finally into the Arctic Circle, where Leithen finds his man and the opportunity for his last wild dedication.

This novel goes deeper than any of its predecessors. Written at greater leisure, dealing almost prophetically with the impermanence of life and death, it is shot through with the ripe wisdom, the mental and spiritual stock-taking which made 'Pilgrim's Way' one of the memorable autobiographies of recent years.

Mr. Howard Swiggett has furnished, as a prologue, a particularly informative summary of Buchan's novels, showing their relationships with one another, as well as considerable about the main characters and the men and women from whom they were drawn.

13-Year Old Jimmy Ryan Tops Among Middlesex Marbles Players

Local Lad, Pupil At St. Joseph's School, Wins Title Saturday; To Seek Further Laurels Next Tuesday

CARTERET—Jimmy Ryan, 13, of 32 Chrome Avenue, won the Middlesex County Marble Championship at the State Home for Boys in Jamesburg last Saturday afternoon.

Ryan, the Borough champion from the St. Joseph School, won his qualifying rounds in the same manner that he attained his borough crown by sharp-shooting and sticking in the ring. He eliminated boys from South River, South Amboy, South Plainfield, South Brunswick and Cranbury to win League No. 4 and a place in the finals.

Rain forced the completion of the tournament indoors, where four celatex rings were in waiting, prepared for just such an emergency in the large gymnasium.

The finals were played between State Home for Boys League No. 1; Highland Park, winner of No. 2, and North Brunswick which represented League No. 3 and Carteret's entry of League No. 4.

Each player was to be met three times for a total of nine games and the best percentage declared the winner.

The champion won eight out of nine for an average of 889, with Highland Park taking runner-up honors with 556.

H. S. BALL PITCHER SERIOUSLY INJURED

But Walter Terebecki, Sophomore Escapes Loss Of His Eye

CARTERET—Jinx dogged athletes at Carteret High School with some serious results this week, most serious being an injury to Walter Terebecki which for a time it was feared might cost him the sight of one eye. However, it was determined later that the result of the injury will not be so disastrous.

Terebecki, fifteen and a sophomore at the school, was struck by a batted baseball at practice. He was pitching at the time. Dr. Louis S. Downs was called for immediate treatment, after which he was taken to Alexian Brothers Hospital, Elizabeth, in serious condition. X-Rays determined he has a fractured jaw and nose and concussion. His home is at 309 Pershing Avenue.

Others Hurt
Other injuries reported at the school this week were an injury to an ankle sustained by Malcolm Brown while on the athletic field, and a skinned heel for which Alexander Skiba is being treated by his doctor.

William Thous, six years old, was wounded when he was struck by an arrow as high school girls practiced archery on the school grounds. He is recovering.

New Type Airship

Resembling a flying torpedo, a unique "Ray Ship" which has attracted governmental interest was recently unveiled by its inventor, Ralph A. Yall, a civil engineer of Los Angeles. It is a lighter-than-air craft and is propelled on a rocket ship and the vacuum power of Mother Nature's tornado. When completed it will weigh three-quarters less than existing dirigibles, carry four times the load and travel 200 miles per hour with the maneuverability of a plane.

Bats have Supersound System do it all by a supersound system. It has been revealed by the American Association for the Advancement of Science. They use a "supersonic system" whereby they emit hisses inaudible to the human ear. These sounds, the investigators say, reverberate from obstacles in the path of the flying bats and aid them in avoiding collisions.

One out of each 260 persons in the United States is diabetic, the scientists say.

Gets Silver Medal

Jimmy was presented with a silver medal by J. H. Atkinson, of the State Home.

Jimmy was taken to Jamesburg by Recreation Supervisor Edward A. Strack and Eugene Wadiak of the W. P. A. Recreation Personnel.

The Champion will go to Brookdale Park Tuesday May 27 to compete in a State Sectional meet. The winner of this meet will take a two-day trip to Hershey, Pa., to compete in an inter-state meet to decide a winner to represent the Eastern Section at the National finals at Wildwood, N. J.

The winner will spend an entire week at Wildwood. Many valuable prizes will be awarded to National champions and the runners-up.

Eugene Wadiak acted as a referee at the county meet in Jamesburg.

Good Wall Finish

A good wall finish to use in an attic that is being made over into a bedroom is the use of a fiberboard insulating material for this purpose. It will make the room more comfortable as it will be insulated against heat and cold, and it will also make an attractive finish as it can be used in its natural color and is available in pastel shades that will form harmonious backgrounds for any type of interior decoration. It can be used on walls and ceilings.

Greeley's Writing Bad

Horace Greeley's handwriting was so bad he couldn't read it himself, and often had to call in Jack Robinson, one of his proofreaders, who could decipher it quicker than you could say his name.

She's Training

This little lady of two—Miss Lucy Martin—has gone into summer training with her morning portion of honey. Honey now forms an important part of young and adult diet the clock around.

Feeding Goldfish

Feeding goldfish is quite simple. They will eat everything within reason. The dry fish foods sold commercially are quite sufficient. They appreciate a few garden worms, however, or a few flies or other insects. In very large pools, a stiff mash of oatmeal boiled with shredded liver and put into the pool in lumps once in a while is sufficient to keep the fish in good shape.

Sonia Kollarick, Mildred Kollarick, Anna Kopil, Mary Kopil, Pauline Sefcik, Irene Sefcik, Margaret and Marion Stanichar, Charlotte Britton, Mary Brechka and Mary Koval.

As Margaret Prokop, president of the Children of Mary, approached the statue, the acolytes sang "Zdra-va bud Maria." Miss Prokop led a group of members carrying garlands which formed an aisle leading to Statue this group being Louise Lukach, Anna Mazur, Catherine Chamra, Margaret Naszak, Thomasina Siplak, Florence Brechka, Veronika Gazdik, Mary Beres, Johanna Medveta, Eleanor Prokop, Bertha Kondrak and Anna Goceljak.

Through this aisle walked next Miss Rose Bednar with her attendants, small Joan Dzurilla and Joseph Medvets. Miss Bednar and Joan were gowned alike in white and Joseph wore evening clothes. Next followed Miss Mary Mudrak, her attendants Barbara Mickla and Ralph Toth, Miss Mary Capik and her attendants, Joan McLeod

Talented Twinkle-Toes

She's a girl with twinkling and talented toes, but Ann Miller has other gifts too. She is currently making "Time Out For Rhythm," in which she plays the feminine lead, opposite Rudy Vallee. That gives her some straight dramatic acting to do, and she is presented for the first time as a singer as well. When she was ten, Ann won a personality contest in her home town of Houston, and she has been a citizen of the glittering entertainment world more or less ever since. She's eighteen now.

Chimes Sounded

Carolyn Dolinich, crown bearer, gowned in white and carrying a lace pillow, preceded Miss Fisher, who wore a princess style gown made with a long train and a tulle veil depending from a tulle tiara and carrying a bouquet of lilies which she laid at the feet of the Statue. During this part of the ceremony Sister Geraldine played the chimes on the church organ and directed the singing. The crown's flower girls were Barbara Kolonek and Theresa Solwin, gowned in white net. Just before the actual crowning Miss Sonia Kollarick sang "Ave Maria," and during the crowning "Bring Flowers Rarest" was sung, and at this point the State was lit by a blue arch.

All taking part in the ceremony placed their bouquets about the statue, dedicating the flowers to

Father Stule preached the crowning sermon and Benediction followed, during which the acolytes held their candles to form a cross in the church aisle while they sang "Adora Te."

New Books

The second new volume reviewed here is MY DAYS OF STRENGTH, by Anne Walter Fearn, M.D.

In 1893 a young Southern belle, who had defied convention to become a doctor, went out to China to open up the Women's Hospital in Soochow. Intending to stay on only a year or two, she remained for forty, fighting a dramatic battle against ignorance, superstition, filth and disease.

When she first arrived there, sanitation was unknown; "Spit," she observes, "has never been a horrid word to the Chinese." Chinese doctors were not allowed to examine their women patients; frequently not even permitted to see them. Women in childbirth were left to the ungentle ministrations of ignorant midwives; and fear of the "foreign devil doctor" was so great that often she was summoned only when it was too late, after native doctors had already done their worst.

For ten years she stayed in Soochow, where her whipwind energy won her the nickname of "the Small Typhoon." Faced with any deplorable condition—barking dogs, epidemics, floods, or mosquitoes—her instant reaction was: "Something must be done about it." And always, something was. Baby cases formed a large part of her practice. She once remarked to a friend that she had "trained in Surgery and degenerated into obstetrics." During her forty years of active practice she delivered 6,017 babies; once as many as nine in one day. By the time she married and went to Shanghai she had built a children's wing on the hospital, instituted a vocational school for her "waifs and strays," established the first coeducational medical school in China, and done much to overcome the Chinese distrust of the "foreign devil."

In Shanghai she not only donated her services to the Margaret Williamson Clinic but quickly became Shanghai's Number One lady and hostess. Eventually she opened her own hospital—the unique Fearn Sanitarium. Through all these years she worked close to the Chinese, against a background of everchanging conditions. Prostitutes, social leaders, diplomats, bandits, business men, coolies, and high officials, they were all her friends. She mingled her indiscriminately and successfully. She saw the Revolution of 1911, lived through the anxious days of the rebellion of 1913, witnessed the White Russian invasion after the war, observed the constant encroachment of the Japanese.

Now she has written a heart-warming account of these eventful years in a book as vivid and exciting as an Arabian Nights' adventure. MY DAYS OF STRENGTH is a really great human record—and the story of a remarkable woman.

Story Depicting Life Of Nomads Of Roads Opens At Strand Tonight

A four star cast heads "The Wagons Roll At Night," which has been booked by the Strand Theatre to open there tonight. The headliners are Humphrey Bogart, Joan Leslie, Eddie Albert and Sylvia Sidney and the picture is a powerfully dramatic story of nomads of the road, living, loving and hating by a code of their own.

Bogart follows up his recent smash success in "High Sierra," with the role of a hard and cynical owner of a carnival company, which he rules with a rod of iron. He has, however, like most hard guys, a soft spot. His is reserved exclusively for his kid sister, played by Joan Leslie, for whom he maintains a country home. One jump ahead of the sheriff, as usual, the carnival rolls into Hentyville—and trouble. The lion tamer gets drunk, and lets one of the lions escape. The beast roams into a local grocery store, and the grocery clerk, Eddie Albert, corners him with a pitchfork. Even hard-boiled Bogart is impressed by this, and in order to jack up box-office receipts, he invites Albert to make guest appearances with the carnival that week. He is a sensational success, and thrilled with the new, strange life, Albert moves on with the show. Eventually the drunken lion tamer is fired, and Albert gets the job. The pseudo gypsy fortune teller, played by Sylvia Sidney, teaches him the ropes of the carnival.

Broadcasting History Depicted On Screen

Tuneful Melodies Supply Background For Feature At Majestic

Against a background of tuneful melodies, "The Great American Broadcast" unfolds the gay, fascinating story of the courageous, talented people who first filled the air waves with song and laughter.

From the same studio which produced "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "Tin Pan Alley," and others, the film "The Great American Broadcast," starring Alice Faye, John Payne, Jack Oakie and Cesar Romero, opens tonight at the Majestic Theatre.

Mindful of the fact that it is more difficult to reproduce the recent past on the screen to the satisfaction of all potential moviegoers, one year of research was spent before a single line of script was written. People familiar with the styles, customs and trends of 1919 and the years immediately following, will find "The Great American Broadcast," historically accurate, but in a most gay, entertaining way.

Those were the days of the crystal set, so every available crystal set west of the Rockies was purchased, and in addition, others were built to supplement these.

The songs sung by Alice Faye in "The Great American Broadcast" were written by those master tunesmiths, Mack Gordon and Harry Warren. For "The Great American Broadcast," they prepared "Long Ago Last Night," "Run Like the Raindrop, Run," "I Take T. You," "I've Got A Bone To Pick With You," "The Great American Broadcast," "Where You Are," and "It's All In A Lifetime."

Merriest Of Farces Coming To Crescent

'The Lady Eve' Hits A New High In Hilarity; Fonda And Stanwyck Starred

For all we know, those who already have seen the new comedy, "The Lady Eve," which will open Wednesday at the Crescent Theatre, are still laughing, for they saw one of the merriest farces in many a season.

Starring Barbara Stanwyck and Henry Fonda, the new film arrival hits a new high in hilarity. Under the guidance of Preston Sturges, who wrote and directed it, going at the pace and brilliance of a pinwheel, Sturges has given us three smash comedy successes, including "The Lady Eve," in about a year. Previously he authored and directed "The Great McGinty" and

"Christmas In July."

Included in the great comedy past of the latest of the shrewdly Sturges' comedies are such veteran favorites as Charles Coburn, Eugene Pallette, William Demarest, Eric Blore, Martha O'Driscoll and Luis Alberni. Led by Miss Stanwyck and Fonda, playing his first comedy role after a series of heavy dramas, the entire cast performs brilliantly, playing their roles right up to the comedy hit.

The story presents Fonda as the scion of a wealthy family, who falls into the hands of a gang of slick card sharps, headed by Miss Stan-

She's A Match For Him

Sylvia Sidney lets Humphrey Bogart know she can be just as tough as he is in "The Wagons Roll At Night," new action drama, opening tonight with a prevue at the Strand Theatre.

Under Enemy Fire

Death stalks the bridge of the British warship when an enemy shell kills one of the officers. Looking firmly at their comrade are John Clement's (left) and Clive Brook (right) in a scene from "Convoy" coming to the Crescent Theatre.

Laughs, Lifting Music In 'Las Vegas Nights'

Combine To Give Glamorous Background To Delightful Film

Gay laughter and lifting music set amid an interesting new background provide an evening of delightful entertainment in "Las Vegas Nights," which opens Monday at the Crescent Theatre.

The scenes are laid in the wide-open town of Las Vegas, Nevada, from which the picture derives its title. Las Vegas, known as "The Friendly City" prides itself upon being the last pioneer town in the United States in which gambling is absolutely legal and widely advertised.

The picture opens with Bert Wheeler, Virginia Dale, Constance Moore and Lillian Cornell standing trial for bringing livestock into the state of Nevada without a permit. This quartette happens to be a vaudeville act and the livestock consists of a crate of pigeons—trained birds with which Virginia Dale does her variation of the fan dance.

When the judge tells Bert Wheeler to go ahead and put on their act and if it is truly funny he will dismiss the charges, a hilarious scene results.

Alas! The Jackpot!

With the troupe's last five dollars, Constance Moore wanders into the Club Nevada—not to gamble, but just to listen to Tommy Dorsey and his band. However, she can't resist dropping one nickel into a slot machine. Just as she is about to pull the handle, Phil Regan rushes up and kisses her—just an old Nevada custom, kiss a stranger just for luck. It works and much to Connie's surprise the "one-armed bandit" gives forth with the jackpot. Excitedly, Bill grabs Connie's hand and they start on a tour of all the gambling houses in the town. As they leave the last one they discover that they've cleaned up $150 each.

It wouldn't be cricket to tell you more about the picture except to say that Tommy Dorsey's hot band numbers bring down the house.

Hank Ladd, as Bert Wheeler's foil, is a newcomer to the screen who turns in a most creditable comedy performance as does Red Donohue and his mule "Uno." Lillian Cornell and Virginia Dale, two lovely singers and dancers, help carry the story, songs and comedy.

"Las Vegas Nights" was directed for Paramount by Ralph M. Page musical director.

Glamorous Vivien Leigh, Olivier Have Lead Roles In Ditmas Film

In launching "That Hamilton Woman!" his first Hollywood production and his most ambitious picture to date, Alexander Korda selected Vivien Leigh and Laurence Olivier—the most glamorous couple in the world—to play the stellar roles in this great romance. "That Hamilton Woman!" which is slated for its premiere at the Ditmas Theatre starting tomorrow, unfolds on the silver screen one of the most stirring and unforgettable love stories of all time, the romance of Lady Hamilton and Lord Nelson.

Briefly, the story of "That Hamilton Woman!" concerns the spectacular career of Lady Emma Hamilton, wife of Sir William Hamilton, who came into this world as the daughter of a blacksmith. Her rise to prominence in Neapolitan society began with a profitable deal between the bankrupt Charles Greville and his uncle, Sir William. For ceding his sweetheart, then Emma Hart, to his uncle, Greville received funds to pay off his debts. Although the lady at first resented the exchange, her instinct for power and luxury told her that it was probably the chance of a lifetime.

Brilliant Setting

The story of "That Hamilton Woman!" opens in Naples, whither the gorgeous Emma had been sent on a visit. When she discovers the real purpose of the visit, she capitalizes on it by becoming the channel of communication between the Queen of Naples and the British Minister, as well as the means of doing great service to Nelson.

To capture the era of opulence in which these vivid characters moved, Korda and his art director-brother, Vincent Korda, mapped out one of the most lavish production schedules on record today. Among the outstanding sets created for the picture are included the magnificent British Embassy at Naples, which covered an entire sound stage at the studio with terraced marble gateway, enormous paved courtyard with covered loggias containing priceless statues brought from an eastern museum;

EAST RAHWAY GIRL BRIDE SATURDAY

Ceremony In Polish Church United Jean Zabudowski And Bernard Walp

CARTERET—The marriage of Miss Jean Zabudowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Zabudowski of East Rahway, to Bernard Walp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Walp of Rahway, took place Saturday morning. The ceremony was performed in Holy Family Church by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Joseph Dziadosz, and was followed by a breakfast at the home of the bride for members of the families.

The altar decorations at the church were palms, fern and cut flowers. The bride wore an ensemble of beige, with brown accessories, and a corsage of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Sophie Zabudowski, who was the maid of honor, wore dusty pink crepe and a corsage of red roses and lilies of the valley. Joseph Crilly of Elizabeth acted as Mr. Walp's best man.

After a trip to Virginia Beach the couple will live in Rahway.

Lady in Blue Has Most Sex Appeal

Red an Also Ran in Tests With Psychometer.

NEW YORK.—Girls, if you're trying to get a man—or want to keep the one you have—sprinkle your wardrobe generously with navy blue.

It was discovered that that's the color that gets "em—not red, as you've been taught.

Eight men were hooked up to a gadget called a psychometer. Then they gazed upon gorgeous models in colored dresses. It was the lady in blue who made their hearts the clammiest, their hearts the jumpyest.

The next most agitating colors were coral, beige and green. What happened to red? Nobody knew.

The males who submitted to the psychometer included two actors, Eyle Talbot and Ole Olsen; two theater ushers, a pair of brokers and a couple of blushing football players.

The ushers were the hit of the experiment. One of them had the lowest reaction, eight points, and the other was high with 32.

When the latter's score was announced, a number of the 150 girl students at the Tobá-Coburn School for Fashion Research, where the test was held, shrieked: "What's his telephone number?"

Perspiration in the palms was the chief factor in the test results. Each subject closed his eyes, relaxed. Then, with electrodes strapped to his palms, he opened his eyes and looked at the color at a time. The machine registered in proportion to the amount of perspiration the color caused.

All of the men declared it was the color and not the model that affected them.

'40 ACES ENTERED IN HOLIDAY GRIND

Nyquist And France Sign For Hankinson Card In Allentown, Pa.

ALLENTOWN, Pa.—Ten states are represented in the early entry lists released this week for the All-American stock car auto races at the Allentown fair grounds, Friday, Memorial Day, May 30.

In announcing the initial bracket of entries, Ralph Hankinson, director of the big speed classic, said: "The number of entries received thus far are very encouraging and it looks as if we will have a goodly cross section of the country represented by race day."

At the top of the Allentown entry list is Ted Nyquist, the Reading, Pa., driver, who set the early pace in the 1939 and '40 stock car classics at Langhorne. A former race car chauffeur, Nyquist recently quit the high speed pastime to devote all his time to racing stock cars.

Second in sequence of entry but "tops" from the standpoint of past performance is Bill France, the 1940 national stock car champion from Daytona Beach, Fla. France finished second in the 200-mile stock car race at Langhorne last year and he will wage his initial 1941 title defense at Allentown on the 30th.

Confederate Bill Passed (It's Counterfeit, Too!)

NORTH TARRYTOWN, N. Y.—Nobody said anything at the McCall and Rizzuto automobile agency some days ago when a customer made a $150 down payment on a car with three old $50 bills he said he had found in a trunk at his home. The customer got the car and the money was deposited in an Ossining bank.

But one bill came back from the Federal Reserve bank in New York. The bill, said the Reserve officials, was Confederate money, dated 1863, and counterfeit to boot. Police said they would prosecute the car purchaser unless he makes good with $50 of genuine money.

Lake Cruces, N. Mex.—A groom complained to a priest that fifteen minutes after the wedding, his bride disappeared with $100 of his money, $300 worth of clothes and a new automobile. ## Company Returns Half Of Profits!

Here's an item of news which brings encouragement to every patriotic American citizen.

The Navy Department announces that the Associated Shipbuilders of Seattle, Washington, has notified it that the company will return about fifty per cent of its original estimated profits on a contract for converting a passenger liner into a troop transport.

Ralph Bard, Acting-Secretary of the Navy, thinks that this cooperative and patriotic action should be brought to the attention of the American public. It appears that this is the first time during the present emergency that a company has voluntarily offered to refund profits. He stressed the fact that the company acted voluntarily and on its own initiative, by proposing to reduce profits "to a degree consistent with fair business standards in this country."

It seems that the Seattle companies undertook to convert a passenger vessel into a troop transport for $1,750,000. The work began last November and while it was underway, the company was awarded a contract for the building of four seaplane tenders. This increase in the volume of work and added overhead expenses that profit reaching the company, will reach the shareholders where they are excessive.

In calling attention to this remarkable action by the Associated Shipbuilders of Seattle, we think it should be noted that this organization is the Puget Sound Dredging Company and the Bridge Shipyard, both of Seattle. We commend the management of this organization and commend its examination and commend its examination of the industrial concerns of the United States engaged in production under the War Relocation Authority program.

Such Generosity!

Under the terms of the Armistice, France is required to pay Germany 400,000 francs a day, ostensibly to cover the cost of maintaining the German Army of occupation.

This immense sum has been paid since the collapse of French resistance and, according to one estimate, that even a man, woman and child in France has contributed 3,750 francs to Germany.

The actual cost of maintaining the German Army of Occupation in France is said to be not more than 125,000,000 francs a day. This leaves the Germans a daily profit of 275,000,000 francs.

This profit is being used to buy French foodstuffs, clothing, leather, wool, cotton and other staples, which are shipped to Germany. Other sums are invested in French industries, utilities, newspapers, theatres and other enterprises.

Plainly, by forcing the French to pay an exorbitant sum for the cost of maintaining the Army of occupation, Germany secures the funds with which to gradually buy up the materials and possessions of the French people.

Recently, it is reported, Hitler has offered to reduce the cost of occupation by twenty-five per cent. This means that he will have a smaller daily profit. Just why the Nazi Dictator is willing to do this remains to be seen, but we suspect that his scheme has already robbed France of most of the things that the Germans can remove to Germany.

Fighting Night Bombers

The British seem to be having greater success in shooting down German aircraft at night and from figures given out by the Air Ministry in London, the RAF seems to be making progress in its effort to overcome night-bombing.

On the night of May 7th, according to an Air Ministry communique, a record was set when twenty-four enemy aircraft were destroyed, twenty by fighter planes, three by anti-aircraft gunfire and one by balloon barrage. This record has already been surpassed by subsequent successes.

Weather conditions, according to the British, were very favorable for fighter operations but the Air Ministry says that the main reason for satisfaction lies in the gradual and consistent increase in casualties inflicted on the enemy since the early part of the year.

Everybody remembers the effort of German aircraft to establish mastery over the British Isles in the early fall of 1940. We were thrilled beyond measure when the Royal Air Force broke up the German attacks, shooting down almost 200 German planes in one day. Since then, the Germans have taken to night raiding, which is destructive, but which the British hope to conquer in time.

Figures released by the Air Ministry show that there has been an increasing number of German planes destroyed at night. In January, it was fifteen, in February, fifteen, in March, forty-seven, in April, 90 and in the first week of May, seventy-four.

The highest figure for any one night in January was five, on January 19, three in February on the 18th, thirteen in March on the thirteenth, thirteen in April on the 9th and the encouraging twenty-four on May 7th.

Let Them Speak Their Minds

Let's have a word in praise of prospective graduates, even now working their minds upon problems to be solved at the annual commencement.

While the race of human beings pokes fun at the youngsters, isn't there something to praise in the eagerness with which they attack the evils of the day and the hopefulness with which they plead their special causes?

Youth may be criticized for lack of years, but if cynical experience could solve half the problems that it thinks it can, where would impetuous youth find anything to correct?

So, to all young people of our community let these greetings appear. Let them proceed with their study of "problems", and make known their "cures." Who knows what statesmen have been developed from school-day orators and what the world owes to the keen study of commencement day speakers?

Using The Back Door

Now that the President has removed the ban on the Red Sea as a combat area, American ships will soon begin service to ports in the Red Sea. The Axis powers have threatened to sink all ships on sight.

In an effort to avoid complications, the ships of the United States will not go across the Atlantic or into the Mediterranean in order to reach Red Sea ports, but on the other hand, will operate across the Pacific, around India and then into the Red Sea. Everybody hopes that the Axis powers will behave and let our ships proceed safely.

Doing Their Bit

Lord Halifax, British Ambassador to this country, calls attention to the changed structure of war and emphasizes the part played by designers, draftsmen and skilled workers.

"Courage and endurance are still needed," he says, "but by themselves they are useless as the courage of savages against rifles and machine guns."

Undoubtedly, the fate of the world today depends upon the industrial plants of Great Britain and the United States. The workmen who toil on defense orders are doing their bit.

Risk Of Warfare

The use of American warships to protect shipping in the Atlantic involves the risk of warfare. No one should deny this fact.

Not to use American warships assumes the chances involved in the collapse of British resistance which would open the way for Hitler, in collaboration with his Italian and Japanese stooges, to attack the United States. This would mean warfare and nothing is to be gained by denying the fact.

The Lindbergh Puzzle

We are not among those who join in the abuse of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh but we marvel that he is unable to see the difference that distinguishes the cause of democracy and the cause of the dictator nations.

It is so clear, to us, that the world cannot live at peace, and that individualism cannot retain its hopes, if totalitarianism is to become supreme that we find it difficult to understand the failure of others to see this aspect of the world crisis.

Coming in on the middle of some of the late evening radio singers' programs, one can't always tell whether it's a contralto or a tenor. But it often turns out to be neither.

Spring gardens are coming along fine, according to reports, but nobody has sent us anything to eat.

FDR'S FIRESIDE CHAT FRANCE AND THE U. S. LEAHY EXERTS PRESSURE PETAIN MAY LOSE HOLD CHANGING DRAFT AGES MONEY FOR DEFENSE PLANTS

Unusual interest is being taken in the "fireside chat" which the President will make to the nation next Tuesday evening. The general belief is that Mr. Roosevelt will outline the current position of this country in relation to the world situation and, possibly, announce in general terms the future course that he intends to pursue.

Obviously, it is idle to speculate upon the contents of the President's utterance. Instead of announcing a future policy, it may be in the nature of an explanation of steps already taken and to be taken before May 27.

The relations between France and the United States continue somewhat uncertain but there is every indication that Admiral Leahy, the United States Ambassador at Vichy, is exerting considerable pressure to prevent the full-fledged cooperation of Marshall Petain's Government with Adolph Hitler's new order.

Conversations on the shipment of food supplies from this hemisphere into unoccupied France occur from time to time, with the French Government caught between the desire to secure wheat from the Western Hemisphere and the pressure of pro-German Frenchmen who urge collaboration with Hitler.

Recently, there have been press attacks on the United States and a newspaper service, located in Vichy, points out that war between the United States and Germany, which would develop a common interest between the people of Old Europe and a new solidarity stronger than any sentimental factor.

In considering the relationship of this country to the war in Europe, it is necessary to take cognizance of the existence of a strong faction at Vichy in favor of accepting the status quo in Europe. The idea has been expressed that the French Navy gives France a strong position in negotiations with Hitler and that it might be possible for France, by contributing naval strength, to become the second partner in Hitler's order in Europe.

Italian impotence, it is believed creates an opportunity for the French Navy to give needed strength to the Nazi movement and to secure a prominent place in the new set-up. It is even suggested that Marshal Petain, who has given his word that the armed forces of France will never be used against the British, may have to go in order to pave the way for the new alignment.

Brigadier General Hershey, director of the Selective Service Act, recommends that it be amended to allow "deferment by age groups." It seems that a comparatively small percentage of men are being inducted from suggestion is made that men in the higher age groups and the upper age groups should be placed in a deferred list, but nevertheless remain liable for service in an acute emergency.

The suggestion is made "in the national interest" because experience discloses that the younger age brackets provide the best men for training and service. Moreover, since the trainees are to be kept in reserve for a period of ten years, it is desirable that those trained be as young as possible in order that the reserve forces will be composed of men whose effectiveness will remain at a high level during the period of their reserve status.

There has been considerable discussion of the probability of lowering the maximum age of those affected by the Selective Service Act. The suggestion has also been made that the Act be amended by dropping the lower age limit from 21 to 18 years. Just what changes, if any, Congress will make in the Act remains uncertain, but the President is expected, very shortly, to call for the registration, early next month, of all young men who have reached the age of 21 since the passage of the Selective Service Act, and the first registration thereunder.

When the defense program was undertaken by the Government, it became necessary to construct factory facilities to turn out airplanes, guns, tanks, machine tools and other defense equipment. In some instances, private industry financed the new plants, but it was also necessary for the Government to provide funds for much of the expansion.

Up to March 30th, the Government had committed itself for $1,915,000,000 of new factory facilities, including plants and machinery, and a partial compilation shows that eighty-six per cent of Government expenditures will be for Government-owned plants. The OPM points out that all commitments of the Government, plus private financing under Certificates of Necessity, total $2,892,000,000. To this amount should be added the British commitments for plant facilities in this country which amount to $191,000,000.

The number of Government-financed plants, as of March 31st, was 331, with an average cost of $5,786,000. The number of privately financed plants was 904, with an average cost of $729,000. The reader should understand, of course, that these figures do not represent the total expenditure that the Government will make for new factory facilities. The demand for defense equipment is being increased almost every day and Government financing, in the form of cash or certificates, steadily increases.

Christian Science Church Calendar

Christian Science—First Church of Christ Scientist, Sewaren, is a branch of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. Sunday services 11 A. M., Sunday School 9:30 A. M., Wednesday Testimonial meeting 8 P. M., Thursday, reading room, 3 to 5 P. M.

"SOUL AND BODY" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, May 25, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world.

The Golden Text is: "I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ" (I Thessalonians 5:23).

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens" (II Corinthians 5:1).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The material body and mind are temporal, but the real man is spiritual and eternal" (p. 302).

Stop 'Gravy' In Public Spending

Freund Bill Would Bar Any Public Official From Selling Merchandise To State Government

A Right Step

Approval by the Assembly several days ago of assembly bill 109 can be hailed by taxpayers as a definite step forward toward eliminating the "gravy" of state governmental spending.

Introduced by Assemblyman Freund of Bergen County the measure would, if enacted into law, make it illegal for any elected or appointed officer, employee or member of any state department, board or other agency of the State, to make contracts with the state or sell goods and supplies to the state.

There have been endless complaints that far too many of the men who are elected and appointed to serve the people in the state government regard their public obligations too lightly and look upon their positions solely as a means of securing lucrative personal profit.

Governor Edison's Position

Governor Edison gave pointed attention to this in his inaugural address, declaring: "Another dissatisfaction that many citizens have with our state government centers around the reports heard from time to time that there are those directly or indirectly concerned with the State's affairs who seem to have a remarkably lucrative sort of luck.

"To put it in plain American words" he added, "the people suspect that there is a good deal of gravy to be had at Trenton." Observing that there have been cases where the public could not be blamed for being suspicious, the Governor promised to "dig into any well founded reports of that nature."

Introduced in the Assembly soon after the Governor made this statement, the Freund measure would amend and extend to the state government the provisions of a law now in effect which forbids county, municipal and school officers, whether elected or appointed, from doing business with their respective governments.

A Blow—Belt Hard!

Passage of the "anti-gravy" measure would strike a hard blow at some of the worst offenses committed by those who use their positions of public trust as a springboard for selfish monetary gain. The bill is supported by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association and other civic groups working for better government. The Association regards this measure as one of the most important of the current legislative session, since it would outlaw present lax practices and reinforce the association's campaign to plug up the leaks in public spending.

In voting for the bill the majority in the assembly displayed a commendable willingness to enact legislation in the public's interest. Senate members have a real opportunity to follow this fine example and to do their part to make this bill a law. Governor Edison, who has already announced his position regarding "gravy" reports can assist in an important way to secure favorable action in the Senate by lending his aid and cooperation.

HOSPITAL TRAINS

Is Most Expensive Child in World

$1,701,000 Spent for Support of Libby Holman's Son in Past 3 Years.

BALTIMORE.—Little Christopher Smith Reynolds, son of the former Libby Holman, torch singer, appears to be firmly established, by a court order just approved here, as the most expensive child in the world.

The order approves an accounting by his guardians of the expenditure during the past three years of the neat sum of $1,701,940.45 for Christopher's "support, maintenance, education and recreation."

This, a little mathematics will show, amounts to more than $1,500 a day. All to take care of one seven-year-old boy who, according to his own mother, doesn't yet suspect he's rich.

By scoring this record mark in the high cost of juvenile living, little Christopher seems to live up to his family nickname, which is "topper."

'Topper' Tops Record.
Ordinary people gasped some years ago when they learned it had taken something like $150,000 to see little "Babs" Hutton — now the Countess Reventlow — through her debutante year. But "Topper," according to the court record, tops that much every three months.

Where does "Topper's" money all go? Well, the full details are buried in Baltimore's Orphans' court, where the accounting was filed.

"Topper" had to pay for the maintenance of the big estates where he resides with his mother and stepfather, even though Topper occupies a very small part of it. He had to pay a federal income tax of $47,197 for the year of 1939 alone. During the same period, his mother received $91,666.67 for his "support and education." Then he has other unusual expenses—a small stable of prize ponies; servants; guards to protect him from kidnapers; heavy legal fees (amounting to $151,000 last year) and all sorts of other things that don't come under the head of ice cream and cake.

Thinks He's Broke.
"I want 'Topper' to learn to work," his mother said recently. "At our estate in Connecticut, he walks after the gardener, picking up armfuls of grass and carrying it away."

"I give him a quarter for the whole job and he bargains with me about whether it is enough. He has no idea he is a rich boy. In fact, I overheard him say:

"I hope mamma gets a job on the stage. We need money."

Libby Holman scarcely needs to be mentioned, as she received $750,000 and same settlement that gave "Topper" approximately $7,000,000.

This was in 1936, four years after "Topper's" young father, Zachary Smith Reynolds, died of a mysterious bullet wound following a gay birthday party at his home in Winston-Salem, N. C.

"Topper's" legacy comes originally from the Reynolds tobacco millions, of which his late father inherited a $28,000,000 slice.

Sun Worshipers Found In Turkey Near Istanbul

ISTANBUL.—A family of sun worshippers, speaking its own ancient language, has been found living in isolation near the village of Pinarja, European Turkey, within 50 miles of Istanbul, it was reported recently.

There are 24 in the family—12 women, 6 men and 6 children. Their ancestors are said to have come from Egypt during the reign of Emperor Fatih, 600 years ago, and succeeding generations have followed the same customs. They dress in white, take cold showers daily, forbid camels or turkeys to enter their domain, and sacrifice oxen on a fiery altar six times a year.

The family was discovered when one of its men, named Rustem, was sentenced to 18 years in prison for having murdered a Turkish girl he had kidnaped.

His Hiding Place Turns Out to Be Too Perfect

CONCORD, N. C.—A man here picked the perfect hiding place. Scampering through several blocks to elude officers, he ducked down some stairs to a basement. He tumbled in the dark, found a small room.

In the room was a mattress and he covered himself with it. He didn't, until Jailer Bert Ball found him a little later, know that he was hiding in the "dungeon" sometimes used for incorrigible prisoners.

Detective's Manual Is Reminder of His Error

DALLAS.—Detective Elmer Gatty parked his automobile in a 20-minute zone and dashed into the central police station to get his mail.

He found a book of "rules and regulations" being distributed to all policemen, and spent 30 minutes studying it.

Suddenly he groaned. He pointed to Article 7, Section 6, page 43, which read: "A policeman may be discharged for conviction of violation of any city ordinance."

"I rushed to his car. It had a ticket for over-parking."

ADAM GLUCHOWSKI SHUTS OUT ZEBRAS WITH GREAT GAME

Blues Post Eleventh Win Of Current Campaign Over County Seaters

RUSS KING SCORES

CARTERET—Adam Gluchowski and Emil Nascak collaborated to give Carteret High School's great baseball team a well-earned 1 to 0 victory over New Brunswick High Wednesday afternoon at the high school stadium. It was the eleventh triumph for the Blues this season. The team has lost only three games.

Gluchowski, despite the fact that he was nicked for six hits, was invincible and hurled one of the best games in his career. He struck out eight batters and held the county seat batters at bay throughout the entire nine-inning struggle. Only two batters were given free passes by him.

It was little Emil Nascak, Carteret's flashy shortstop, who provided the winning hit in the sixth inning of the game which developed into a tight pitchers' duel. Russ King led off by hitting a single and then stealing second base. Andy Shymanski sacrificed him along to third base. Keats grounded out to the pitcher and King was still on third base. Then up stepped Nascak to the plate and slashed a line drive to center, scoring King with what later proved to be the winning run, as the Carteret stands went wild.

The day previous—Tuesday—the high school team defeated Long Branch, 10 to 4, at the shore field.

SMASH MANY RECORDS AT UNION RACE TRACK

UNION—Those limbs of the law with a penchant for stopping drivers in haste and writing out those tickets for exceeding the speed-limit would have a field day at the Tri-City Stadium in Union, N. J. Because, records at that track have been smashed with regularity since the start of the midget auto racing season.

In the first meet of the new campaign, Charley Breslin set a new mark for the 25-lap main-event distance. Next time out, there were two marks posted when Johnny Ritter blazed around 12 laps in record time and two races later, George Fonder went the Detroit star one better by lowering his time. And in the third show, Fonder did it again, this time bettering Breslin's opening-meet performance.

MEL HARDER, CLEVELAND'S VETERAN "HOT WEATHER" PITCHER, OFF TO A FLYING START IN THE VICTORY COLUMN

SPEAKING ABOUT SPORTS

by Meyer

Basketball Surplus

The other day I read with a great deal of pleasure that the high school basketball team had cleared a net surplus of over $500.00 after all expenses were paid for the past season. That, indeed, is a remarkable thing for I can remember clearly the many years in which the basketball team suffered a deficit for the season. In fact no one ever expected the sport to even clear expenses for the season. It was always a foregone conclusion that basketball, like baseball, was just a non-paying sport. In fact many colleges throughout the country lose money on the indoor sport year after year, dipping into the football surplus to carry all the other sports. Of course, there are a few exceptions to this rule and they are the metropolitan schools who perform in the Garden during their regular campaign and clean up enough to offset the losses they sustained in their own school gymnasium.

Of course we are free to admit that the fact that the high school had an exceptionally swell basketball team had a lot to do with it. But then again we believe that in the past few years there has been a definite revival in interest in high school basketball. No one can deny this. Fortunately Joe Coba has been turning out some pretty good cage teams and that has helped considerably but we are inclined to believe that this revival of interest in the court game is here to stay for a good long time.

Flying Shots

The high school baseball team seems to be going places these days . . . Last week the boys rolled up their sixth straight triumph . . . Defeating Hamilton High, 4 to 1. The Monmouth County school showed a lot of improvement since the early part of the season when the McCarthys rolled over them by a 15 to 0 score.

At the Plainfield game last week the Blues were given a once-over by a Brooklyn scout who had come especially to see Adam Gluchowski . . . And talk about the irony of things . . . In this game Adam, batting in the clean-up position, didn't get a hit in four trips to the plate . . . And the game before, against Woodbridge, he got four for six, besides hurling magnificently and allowing the opposition only four widely scattered hits . . . That's the breaks in life that one gets . . . It is reported that the Brooklyn scout was quite impressed by the work of Emil Nascak at short, and Nick Shymanski behind the plate.

From the looks of things there's going to be many upsets recorded in the U. S. Metals interdepartment softball loop . . . And if some of the favorites finish in the first division they'll consider themselves lucky . . . Congrats to the Lake Island No. 1 pistol team for coping the bunting in the Raritan Valley Pistol League . . . They did a fine job, particularly Alan Kirchner and Joe Sensakavics.

A., an up and coming baseball team, took both ends of a double header last Sunday at Leibig's Field by defeating the Belleville Musketeers, 14 to 3, and the Indian All Stars, 11 to 4. ## ANDY BISTAK K. O.'s FRANKIE JONES IN 1:25 OF 5TH ROUND

CZERPANIAK GIVES FIVE HITS TO TOP HAMILTON BY 4-1

Carteret Fighter In Great Comeback After Taking Shellacking

CARTERET—In one of the greatest comebacks that any fighter exhibited, Andy Bistak, Carteret's professional heavyweight, after being beaten almost to a pulp for four rounds, came back to catch Frankie Jones of Kenilworth, with a haymaker to the chin in the fifth and knock him out in 1:25.

After Jones was counted out Bistak received a thunderous ovation from the fans that almost rocked the Raritan Auditorium. The end came with such dramatic swiftness that the fans had hardly realized what had occurred. It was a left hook by Bistak which started Jones to his finish. Two more lefts and rights opened a two-inch gash on Jones' left eye and he went out like a light.

RAHWAYITE TAKES BRIDE FROM BORO

Ceremony Performed Wednesday By Rev. C. M. Davis In Church There

CARTERET—Miss Ruth Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Campbell of 80 Carteret Avenue, became the bride of Roger A. Albisser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Albisser, of Rahway, at a pretty ceremony performed Wednesday night. The wedding took place in First Presbyterian Church, Rahway, and was performed by the pastor, Rev. Chester M. Davis. Afterward there was a reception at the Winfield Scott Hotel in Elizabeth.

The bride wore a white embroidered mousseline gown, made basque style, with bishop sleeves, and a fingertip veil arranged from a crown ornamented with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was roses, sweet peas and baby's breath. Her sister, Norma, the maid of honor, wore orchid mousseline, made in the same style, and a crown of pleated tulle in the same shade. Her bouquet was Killarney roses. The two bridesmaids, Lillian Albisser, sister of the bridegroom, and Ruth Hilton, were dressed respectively in yellow mousseline and pale blue mousseline and carried yellow sweet peas and pink roses.

The bridegroom's brother, Robert Albisser, of Westfield, acted as his best man and the ushers were Fred Redior and Royal Alden, of Rahway. Mrs. Campbell wore blue chiffon trimmed in white and Mrs. Albisser was gowned in beige crepe trimmed in brown. Their corsages were of gardenias.

The couple went South for their wedding trip and will make their home in Westfield. For traveling the bride wore a green ensemble with beige accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Both Mr. and Mrs. Albisser are graduates of Rahway High School.

"Good Night"

Clever use of backlighting is demonstrated in this flash picture, selected as the "Picture of the Month" by Popular Photography magazine. The photographer, Glen Fishback of Sacramento, Calif., took this excellent shot with a 5x7 Agfa Universal View camera and 6" Zeiss Dagor f9 lens. Exposure was made on Agfa Triple S Pan by open flash, using two No. 21 Photoflash lamps. One light was placed behind the subject to get a silhouette effect, the other near the camera to fill in the shadows, both being fired simultaneously.

CAMERA EXPOSURES

Snap Wild Life

Want to get some animal pictures this summer? There's plenty of "game" right here in your own town. Yes, you can find real wild-life subjects that live under your neighbor's house, in your own attic, or maybe in an old rock fence, a hollow tree, or among the flowers and shrubs of your yard and garden.

Writing in the current issue of Popular Photography, Hugh S. Davis, photographer and Director of Zoological Gardens in Tulsa, Okla., says that any American town thrives with small animals. Some of them are commonly recognized, he says. Others are rarely seen.

Patience is what you need most to get these animal pictures, declares Mr. Davis. Pointing out that any camera will do, he says that fast film will help you get pictures in poor light.

As you patiently watch a gopher hole, you may be surprised to find a toad hopping along. Then take his picture while you wait. Once you start looking for animal pictures, many new subjects will reveal themselves to you.

Handy Filters

If, like most amateurs, you're on the constant lookout for a handy way of filtering your solutions, step up to the cosmetic counter of a drug or department store and purchase a package of the little absorbent tabs sold for removing makeup. They are very inexpensive, are of handy size, and can be discarded after use. They are just about the right shape and size to fit the bottom of a glass funnel very nicely. One of them will do a good job of filtering impurities and foreign matter from anything up to a quart of developer or hypo.

Pose Your Flowers

The flowers in your garden are fine still-life material. You can get good pictures by photographing them just as they are. But if you would like to get some shots that will make your friends exclaim—photographers and flower lovers alike—make attractive flower arrangements and take pictures of them in your own home.

Chances are that there are flowers right now in your living room or on the dining-room table. Take a look at them. With proper lighting, they probably will make a fine still life.

It is essential to stop down your lens to get both flowers and background in sharp focus. This calls for quite a bit of light. When you are setting up your lights, however, be sure to avoid having more than one main light source.
