

Rochester Boxing Hall of Fame announces 2011 class

STAFF REPORT

THE DEMOCRAT AND CHRONICLE
OCTOBER 19, 2011 ET

The Rochester Boxing Hall of Fame has announced its class of 2011 to be honored at its banquet on Nov. 5 at the Diplomat Banquet Hall. The banquet is dedicated to the memory of the late Jerry Spalma and Ross Virgo. Highlighting this year's event are James "Quick" Tillis (John Mastrella Integrity Award), Bobby Czyz and Ron Lyle (Special Courage Award).

Among the honorees are Geneva's Ray Ciancaglini (Jerry Flynn Courage Award), Rochester's Gino Arilotta (Richard Warboys Humanitarian Award) and Democrat and Chronicle Sports Editor Steve Bradley (George Beahon Award for journalism excellence). Carmen Basilio, Charles Murray and Baby Joe Mesi will also attend. Doors open at 6 p.m.. Tickets are $65. Call (585) 798-3123 or (585) 964-3077.

RELATED STORIES

Boxing great, restaurateur dies Obituary» Ross Virgo
THE DEMOCRAT AND CHRONICLE