THE CARTER FAMILY HISTORY

- The Jim Wolf Creek Church of Christ on the county line between Marshall and Desoto Counties in Mississippi was organized December 31, 1843. The following comprised the membership, James N. Brown, Alexander Cathey, William, Matthew B. Cathey, Anderson C. Brown, Frances Locke, Alice Cooke, Matilda Cathey, Eli Askew, Nancy Cathey, Jane Locke, Sarah A. Brown, and Louise Malone. Nearly all have been members of the Church of Christ in Tennessee, and all were white Christians before moving to Mississippi. The Church was named Thyatria, and exist today as the Thyatria Church of Christ in Tate County Mississippi. Slavery was practiced in these times, and in 1844 at least ten (10) slaves obeyed the gospel.
- As the years went by and the state population grew, more blacks were baptized into the church. Later a man named Emanuel Carter was baptized into the church. And the First Black Church of Christ in Thyatria, Miss. was established in 1866. By this time, Emanuel was married and had three small children, Thomas, Mary & Hannah. Later his wife died leaving the children without a mother. Emanuel searched for a good woman to marry. He found one named Elmira Sessem and married her. Elmira began to bear children and one by one the number grew. Robert was the oldest child, followed by Nettie, Georgia, Lela, Emanuel Jr. Addie, Maryetta, James, and Annette. All of the children bore children with the exception of Maryetta. All were members of the Church of Christ. Also they all held to the faith. One by one, these children married and had children. Presented by the Thyatria C of C in July 2016
