Got to Catch that Boat

by Father Michael

I will be leaving after the 8:00 Mass on Sunday to catch a ferry out of Orient Point. I will be leaving for my annual retreat. This year I am heading up to a Jesuit Retreat House in Gloucester, Massachusetts. I am participating in a five-day, guided program. This particular offering is being presented to priests. The retreat ends on Saturday afternoon when I will once again travel to the ferry to return home in the evening.

A guided retreat is a bit more of an “advanced course” when it comes to a retreat. It is silent, which comes pretty easily for me. I will meet once a day for a few minutes with a spiritual director. In addition to Mass, the rest of the day is somewhat free, but there is an expectation to spend four extended periods in prayer. The hard part is not the silence or the prayer periods, rather it is trying to quiet the head and listen to the heart. As important and necessary as our thoughts and ideas are, it is really in the silence that God speaks to our souls.

The last time I made this kind of retreat was when I was in the seminary. During those years, I made two shorter guided retreats and one long one which lasted thirty days. Although these experiences were not always easy, I'm glad I had this as part of my formation. These days were profoundly helpful in understanding my own life. They taught me the ways in which I can renew and deepen my relationship with the Lord. I became aware of this retreat only last month, but the logistics all worked out perfectly. I have a sense that I am being called to this kind of prayer experience; the time is right.

I realize it is a privilege to be able to take this kind of time to be away. It is vital that I be grounded in prayer if I am to be a good pastor. I assure you of my prayers, please keep me in yours.

Due to some early bulletin deadlines, I am writing this article a couple weeks before Thanksgiving. After our morning Mass, I will be spending the day with family at my sister's house in New Jersey. I have fond memories of last Thanksgiving. That year it worked out that it was just me and Mom. Although we had a few invitations, we opted to spend a quiet day together. We looked at picture albums and watched some old videos of family and friends. We shared some fun memories and stories. It ended up being a beautiful day. Mom did not want me making a whole turkey dinner for just the two of us, so we chose an alternative menu, king crab legs which were her favorite. At the time, I did not know that would be her last Thanksgiving. It was a precious gift for the both of us, and I am grateful for that time we shared together.

Peace and Blessings.

ATTENTION PARISHIONERS!

Help Write Our Prayer

We are familiar with the part of the Mass when petitions are offered. Today it is referred to as the Universal Prayer, although through the years it has also been called the General Intercessions or The Prayer of the Faithful. The prayers that we currently use come about through a variety of ways. Sometimes we write our own. We also have several on-line resources and books that we use in creating the prayers for each week. Additionally, there is a parishioner who assists in writing them.

We are offering the opportunity for parishioners to suggest needs or intentions that could be prayed for at our weekend Masses. Identify issues within our world, nation, community or Church. This would not be the place to mention individual people or private prayers such as “for my cousin, Daisy.” (Our Petition Book in the atrium is available for these special intentions.) Please suggest any prayers you would like to see included in our worship. Keep the following guidelines in mind:

- Be succinct; the prayer needs to be limited to one or two short sentences.
- Normally prayers begin with “For.” For our nation, . . .
- This is not the place for prayers of gratitude. In Thanksgiving for . . .
- Prayers should not include any particular agenda or personal opinion.

Depending on how many requests we receive, we will try to include at least one intention per week. It may be necessary to edit the prayer so that its format is consistent with the other prayers.

Please feel free to use the tear-off below to submit your prayer. These can be mailed back to us or placed in the offertory basket. You may also e-mail us your request to pothc@optonline.net .

My Suggestion for a Sunday Prayer Intention

Prayer Intention: “For _____

YOUTH MINISTRY

Hello everyone! Are you in high school? Do you want to make new friends as you play fun games? Do you want to build more of an understanding about yourself and your faith? If you answered "Yes!" to any one of those questions, then you MUST check out the Holy Cross Youth Group! You will be glad you did!

Two weeks ago, the Youth Group had a wonderful Fall Retreat weekend! The theme of our retreat weekend was, In Reverse. The weekend was dedicated to unpacking the Lord's Prayer in reverse to deeply understand the importance of the essential prayer in a new and exciting way! Here are some pictures of our amazing teens who participated in the weekend.

So, if you made your Confirmation, then come with a friend and check out the wonderful opportunities the Youth Group has for you! We would love to see you! The Holy Cross Youth Group is the perfect opportunity for you to continue to grow in your faith and build relationships with others in the parish. Here are our upcoming youth events! Take a look:

- This weekend: There is no Youth Day/Night Event. The YG wants to wish everyone a blessed Thanksgiving weekend!
- Next weekend: The Youth Group will be gathering for a Youth Night from 6 to 8PM. The event will be Sunday, December 2nd. All are welcome! We are having an Advent Wrapping Party and will be wrapping blankets to give to the residents at the Nesconset Nursing Home the following week. :-)

If you are thinking about coming to the Church to see what we are all about, do it! You will not regret it. Come with a friend or family member, and join us as we continue to grow in the endless love of Christ. If you have any questions or concerns, or if you are thinking about joining us and you would like more information, then please do not hesitate to contact Sal Finocchiaro, Coordinator of Youth Ministries, at hcyouthgroup15@gmail.com or call the parish office. Thank you!
