A Perfect Summer Evening

by Father Michael

I try taking Friday as my day off. Sometimes it works out; sometimes not, as I need to work around funerals and weddings. Last Friday a Diocesan meeting was scheduled smack in the middle of the afternoon, which is an unusual time for that kind of gathering. After the meeting, mind and wearied spirit were both saying, "How's 'bout a little fun time now?" I don't know where I got this brainstorm, but I suddenly had a plan for the evening.

I drove out to Medford at 5:30 and got on the Long Island Railroad heading east. In a little over an hour, I was out in Greenport. (I even got a free ride; I bought a ticket, but the conductor never came around to collect it.) The town was bustling. There was a long line of cars waiting for the ferry over to Shelter Island. There were plenty of little ones taking a ride on the merry-go-round. The restaurants were crowded, but I managed to find a nice seat at a bar. I sat down and sipped some mystery cocktail of the day and enjoyed an order of fish tacos. After dinner, I wandered through town in an informal parade of young and not-so-young folks who were happily beginning a great Long Island weekend. The evening would not be complete without an ice cream cone before getting back on the train for a ride back to my car in Medford. It was a short little getaway, but it was a picture-perfect evening. I'm so pleased my "guardian angel of fun" led me on that little adventure.

Please remember all our little ones who are part of our annual Vacation Bible School which begins on Monday. We have approximately 75 campers and 80 older kids who serve as counselors and helpers. (Please pray for good weather and no funerals.) This year the theme is "Roar." The setting for the adventure is the Serengeti. Over the course of the week, the children will encounter Mack the Hippo and Zion the Lion, who are just a few of the characters that will bring the Scripture stories to life. I am grateful to all the helping hands who bring this program to life. Thank you to all the parishioners who also helped by donating some of the many supplies needed.

I hope you are enjoying this holiday weekend. For many it is a four-day break. While we can enjoy the many festivities of BBQs, beaches and fireworks, we also need to be mindful of the blessing we have in our nation. In many ways, they are fragile gifts. We are mindful of those who sacrificed so that we may enjoy what we do. We pray for those who dedicate their lives to protect the freedom we enjoy. Continue to pray for all those who lead our nation and other world leaders. May they be men and women who are committed to work for a better world for all.

ATTENTION PARISHIONERS!

Help Write Our Prayer

We are familiar with the part of the Mass when petitions are offered. Today it is referred to as the Universal Prayer, although through the years it has also been called the General Intercessions or The Prayer of the Faithful. The prayers that we currently use come about through a variety of ways. Sometimes we write our own. We also have several on-line resources and books that we use in creating the prayers for each week. Additionally, there is a parishioner who assists in writing them.

We are offering the opportunity for parishioners to suggest needs or intentions that could be prayed for at our weekend Masses. Identify issues within our world, nation, community or Church. This would not be the place to mention individual people or private prayers such as “for my cousin, Daisy.” (Our Petition Book in the atrium is available for these special intentions.) Please suggest any prayers you would like to see included in our worship. Keep the following guidelines in mind:

- Be succinct; the prayer needs to be limited to one or two short sentences.
- Normally prayers begin with “For.” For our nation, . . .
- This is not the place for prayers of gratitude. In Thanksgiving for . . .
- Prayers should not include any particular agenda or personal opinion.

Depending on how many requests we receive, we will try to include at least one intention per week. It may be necessary to edit the prayer so that its format is consistent with the other prayers.

Please feel free to use the tear-off below to submit your prayer. These can be mailed back to us or placed in the offertory basket. You may also e-mail us your request to pothc@optonline.net .

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

Witnessing Forgiving Loving Helping Teaching Igniting Evangelizing
Teaching Igniting Evangelizing Forgiving Loving Helping Witnessing

Dembe was keeping a very dangerous secret.

For months she had been visiting a Catholic shrine near her home in Uganda. Pregnant, she nurtured her new-found faith there and decided she would have her baby baptized.

But Dembe came from a devout Muslim family and she knew her change of religion could be disastrous. She eventually told her husband who supported her decision. However, it wasn't long before their families found out and tempers flared. Hers immediately cut all ties while his family quickly turned everyone in their small community against them. Soon they were not only ostracized but regularly victimized. Neighbors would curse and throw stones as they walked in the street. Once, while she was home alone, a group of men threw her into a pile of animal dung and mud.

"They told me they'd kill us if I baptized my baby. I was frightened. I knew I had to do something."

So Dembe sought religious asylum in the United States.

When she arrived without her husband, she was still eight months pregnant and the only shelter she could find was in a friend's unfinished basement. A hospital social worker heard her plight and called Catholic Charities' Regina Residence, our home for pregnant women in crisis. There, Dembe was welcomed with open arms and found unconditional love for her and her newborn baby, Maria.

Today, Dembe and her baby are healthy, happy, and enjoying the religious freedom and tolerance of the United States. But she recalls, "At that shrine they told me that God would find a way to wrap His arms around us. It was true. His arms are the embrace of Catholic Charities."
