Here Comes Autumn

by Father Michael

On Friday, summer officially comes to an end. While hurricane season started back in June, we usually associate autumn as the time when most of these storms strike. As I write this column, there are ominous reports of Florence heading towards North Carolina with great fury. When Mother Nature rears up with anger, sadly there is often great destruction as well as suffering. One day at lunch this week the staff here recalled all the headaches and disruptions of life we experienced when super-storm Sandy hit Long Island. We pray that everyone in the path of Florence prepares well and takes themselves out of harm's way.

This past Tuesday our nation remembered the anniversary of the 2001 terror attacks. I always find that day to be somber and reflective as we recall everything that unfolded during those chaotic hours. If you recall, that first Sunday after the attacks, Masses were packed. So many people came to the Church to seek consolation and to share the pain of that time of grieving, waiting and coping within the context of the community. It is a remarkable and beautiful thing that buried deep within the heart and soul of many people is an awareness that the Church is there in a time of crisis. We need to be present to offer God's hope and life to all who are in need. We continue to pray for all those who bear physical and emotional scars in the aftermath of that tragic day in our history.

This week Holy Cross welcomes Bishop Robert Coyle. He will be celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation for 159 of our young people on Wednesday. It is certainly a busy day; there are three different ceremonies. It is always a happy and exciting day. A day like this only comes about because of the efforts of so many people. We are grateful to catechists, parents, coordinators, liturgical ministers and our Religious Ed Office for their commitment and work in bringing this day to life. Congratulations to our newly confirmed and their families.

There has been a bit of "critter activity" around my house this week. A band of wild squirrels broke into my outdoor storage cabinet and ate all my fish food. And, a family of mice has settled into my pantry and is eating all my priest food. I'm trying to move them along as gently as I can by using a have-a-heart trap, but they are skillfully avoiding it.

I don't know about your yard, but mine is becoming mighty soggy. We have had so much rain and so little sunshine. I feel as though, if I sit too long in one place, moss may start growing on me. If April showers bring May flowers, what do September monsoons bring?

Don't forget that Sr. Pat Duffy will be here this afternoon to offer a few words of spiritual inspiration. We hope you can be there for her presentation.

GUEST SPEAKER - SR. PAT DUFFY!

We Hold a Treasure - Sunday, September 16th, at 3PM!

3 We celebrate anniversaries so we can remember the dream and the hope that was with us when we began an adventure. Holy Cross Parish Community was a dream filled with hope for the followers of Jesus. Today we stand in that dream and celebrate the many people who have formed and sustained this community.

We also renew our commitment as followers of Jesus today. In our turbulent times, this faith community is a strength for the journey and a place of peace to sustain us through the challenges each of us faces in our daily living. Join us as we remember and celebrate the love of God that sustains us and the community that surrounds us.

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

This weekend at the offertory we will also be collecting for our Renovations and Major Repairs fund. Next weekend we will be collecting for the St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility. Thank you for your support of these collections!

Remembering and Caring for our Senior Priests

Do you ever think about a favorite Pastor or Parish Priest and wonder how they are and where they may be living?

Well, for our Senior Priests who are living at St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility in Amityville, life is good and sometimes very busy.

“We are very happy that more and more of our Priests are taking advantage of this wonderful facility. We thank you for your support, we depend on it, especially now with the increasing costs we are experiencing. We couldn’t do it without you!”

- Rev. Msgr. Thomas Costa,
Vicar for Senior Priests

“Since I arrived at St. Pius X, I have found living here like being at home. I have found much happiness with my fellow priests and in the entire community, and I especially appreciate the support I receive. Thank you for helping to make this home possible.”

- Rev. Msgr. T Peter Ryan

Even in retirement our senior priests retain roles as our shepherds, and St. Pius X enables these dedicated men who live there to be fully engaged members of the community. “Still on duty,” they serve as our teachers, counselors, and spiritual leaders.

The special collection for retired priests living at St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility will take place next weekend. Thank you for your generosity!

Supporting Dramatic Missionary Growth on Long Island and Beyond

Hands of Christ's Mercy

Learning from Saint Teresa of Calcutta

This month, we celebrated the feast day of Saint Teresa of Calcutta. She was such an influential woman who touched the lives of so many people... and continues to do so even now! She reminds us that we are all called to be the Hands of Christ's Mercy in our communities today.

We need not be in the streets of Calcutta to do good for our brothers and sisters in Christ. We can help our community here on Long Island through the 2018 Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Your gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal will help more than 600,000 of our sisters and brothers receive support and assistance from the funds shared through the CMA each year. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island. Saint Teresa of Calcutta, pray for us!

The Catholic Ministries Appeal is Stewardship in Action!

To make a donation, you can visit <https://www.drvc.org/CMA> or call us at 516-678-5800 ext. 296. Thank You!

Please note: If you choose to donate on the Diocesan website, drvc.org, our church is listed as Church of the Holy Cross.

Here is an update on the status of the 2018 Appeal here at Holy Cross:

Goal	Pledges	Over (Under)	# of Donors	% of Goal
$65,000.00	$55,710.00	($9,290.00)	269	85.7%

When payments reach 100% of our goal, we receive a rebate of 20% or $13,000. Please help your community and your parish by supporting the CMA!

Make checks payable to:
Catholic Ministries Appeal

Please drop in the collection basket or at the Parish Office. Also, brochures are available on the bulletin table in the atrium. Thank you!

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

Army Chaplain Falsely Accused

www.cffor.org

Army Chaplain, Maj. Scott Squires, was accused of discrimination, and threatened with six months in a military prison, when he declined to include a same-sex couple in a marriage retreat. Although he explained that he would include the couple in a subsequent retreat conducted by another chaplain, the investigator recommended that Squires be punished.

Citizens inundated the Pentagon and Congress with telephone calls and emails urging the military to exonerate Maj. Squires and he was represented by First Liberty Institute (FLI). "Chaplains do not have to give up their First Amendment rights in order to serve fellow soldiers," said an FLI attorney. The U.S. Army complied with FLI's request to reverse the investigator's conclusion and Chaplain Squires was completely exonerated.

Rep. Doug Collins (R-GA), who also is a military chaplain, said, "The case of Chaplain Scott Squires highlights how imperative it is that we protect freedom of conscience for every individual in the U.S. military, including the chaplains who minister to them."
