Benefits of working with a Personal Trainer:

- Program Design:

When building a house, even if you have all the materials and builders needed, you will not get very far without a blueprint. At Blaine Everyday Fitness our trainers are architects building you a better body. Our trainers will design a customized program for you that will fit your goals, your body, and your lifestyle.
- Increase Confidence in the Gym:

If you are unsure of yourself in the gym environment, our trainers will help you become more comfortable and more confident. Many beginners feel intimidated by the equipment, the exercises, and by other gym members. Don't let this stop you. Our trainers will help you overcome these discomforts and assist you in adjusting to the fitness environment.
- Motivation:

Our trainers can provide that "kick in the butt" you need to get back you back in shape. Depending on your needs, a personal trainer can meet you at the gym as often as every day, or as little as once a week to keep you on track. Our trainers will make sure you are pushing yourself and staying on track to reach your personal goals.
- Accountability:

Although some days you may be motivated and ready to get a great workout, there are other days when you have less dedication and may end up skipping. Days like these are why you set prescheduled appointments with our trainers. This gives you a greater chance of keeping your fitness commitment if you know someone is waiting for you at the gym.

Welcome

Personal Training

Do you have everything it takes to get in shape except but the motivation?

Are you the type of person that needs some of strong personal motivation, such as a training partner waiting for you to get to the gym each day? Would you get more from your workouts if someone took you through every exercise every time you came to work out? Are you the type of person that just doesn't want to think when you're at the gym and would do better in your workouts if someone held your hand and guided you through every step from the time you got to the gym until you went home?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, then our club's personal training program is what you need.

What is the personal training program and who should take part?

Personal training, or working one-on-one with a certified trainer, is for anyone who struggles with any type of motivation when it comes to sticking with a fitness program. How it works is simple. Book a trainer and he or she will be waiting for you when you arrive. They will then take you through every step of the workout, providing guidance as you need it, as well as some motivation so you get the most out of the workout for that day. Working with a trainer provides you with the freedom to get a great workout without having to put much thought into it because they've already done the planning for you. All you have to worry about is working hard and getting sweaty.

PERSONAL TRAINING

$60 for a single hour session or you may book
10 sessions for $400. This type of training includes membership.

$40 for a single half hour session or you may book

10 sessions for $350 This type of training includes membership if training includes membership

SMALL GROUP TRAINING

We run our small group classes on a four week basis. Flyers at the front desk outline the specifics of each four week session. Different rates apply to members and non members so check it out and see what will work best for you.

Commonly Asked Questions

...about the club.

How's the parking?

Parking is easy at the club. We have plenty of spaces directly in front of the club, and overflow spaces on both sides.

Do you have lockers and towel service?

We have number of free day use lockers but please bring your own lock. We discourage members from leaving their belongings overnight because we don't want to run out of lockers for members when they are at the gym.

We also offer a complimentary towel service. You will see clean towels folded throughout the gym and a designated hamper for dirty towels.

Do I have to have a card to check-in?

We will issue you a membership key fob that allows you to get into the club 24 hrs a day but if you forget your card simply stop by the front desk to let us know. Please swipe your key fob upon entering every time whether we are staffed or not.

How do I bring a guest?

Guests are always welcome at the club. If your guest lives in the club's marketing area and qualifies for our trial membership we will be happy to extend the courtesy. All guest s must fill out proper forms before being allowed in the club so please make sure you and your guest stop by the front desk during staffed hours. If your bring guests in non staff hours there is special envelope and a waiver form in front desk area, each guest should fill and sign the wavers and you pay $5 for each guest put the waver and money in the envelope and slide it under the office door beside the change room in the back are. Fail to do this procedure will cause you to loose your FOB key and you can only use the GYM in the staff hours.

What happens if I lose something in the club?

If you lose something in the club, ask the front desk if the item has been turned in. We do keep a lost and found box in our back office and items are frequently turned in. Our members are extremely honest when they find items in the club so if it has been lost here, it is likely in the box.

Are your locker rooms co-ed?

You will see we have a set of lockers in the back of the gym with a private changing room off to the side. Please use this to change in as opposed to changing in front of the lockers.

Can I bring my kids to just hang out while I work out?

To insure the safety of everyone, children are not allowed in the facility unless they are members themselves. Children must be at least 14 years old to be a member and need to be accompanied by an adult member (18+) at all times. Children 16-17 may come in by themselves during staffed hours or with another adult member (18+) during non staffed hours.

Welcome

Too embarrassed to go to the gym?

You bought a gym membership thinking it was the motivation you needed to get your butt out the door, but now you're regretting every minute you spent with that salesperson. Don't let a little first-time fear ruin a beautiful relationship between you and your gym. Our 10 commandments will help you get over it. By Fitz

Admit it, you're scared. You're positive that the moment you open the gym door everyone will be gawking at you and snickering at your lack of exercise experience. Without a doubt, you're bound to do something stupid.

You have a right to be nervous, even fearful but if you continue to feel this way your dream of that lean, sculpted person is going to remain a nighttime fantasy.

Before you let the opportunity slip away, you need to wake up and buck up. Although it feels as though all eyes in the gym are on you the second you walk through the door, they are not. And you know what? The eyes that actually do glance your way are more likely to be impressed than they are ridiculing. No matter what your age, size, or present fitness level, you should take pride in the fact that you are doing something genuinely good for your body.

To get the most out of your new club membership, follow our 10 exercise commandments:

1. I will be impressed with everyone who walks through the front door of my health club. After all, they came here to improve themselves. I will understand that everyone is equally impressed with me.
2. I will utilize the health club staff for a first day introduction to the gym. I will take notes as they explain how to use each machine.
3. I will purchase three exercise outfits, which I feel comfortable in. That way, I will never feel self-conscious about whether or not I look good.
4. I will understand that the other people in the gym are probably far too busy to look at me anyway.
5. I will ask questions if I am not sure how to use a machine. The gym staff is there to make sure my workouts are safe and effective. They will be pleased to offer assistance.
6. I will participate in a beginner's aerobics or group fitness class. This course will allow me to try out the moves and get comfortable with them before I attempt a more advanced class.
7. I will hire a personal trainer if I feel I need extra guidance.
8. I will always remember that the health club is a place for individual improvement; it is not a place for competition. There are no trophies at the end of the workout, so I will not feel forced to keep up with anyone around me.
9. I will stick with it. Everything I've done was once new to me, yet I have overcome many different challenges in my life. The more I come to the gym, the more at home I will feel.
10. I will feel proud of my accomplishments, and congratulate myself after every workout! I will reward myself occasionally for all the hard work.
