

James and Robyn Vincent are ordained ministers who serve at the Global Spheres Center in Corinth, TX under the leadership of Dr. Chuck Pierce. Together, they also serve as the leaders and founders of Worship International, a ministry focused on mobilizing singers, minstrels, dancers, and other artistic worshipers in their true kingdom purpose. They have also founded the ALTAR School of Worship, which equips worshipers everywhere to establish the kingdom of God through the gifts He has given them.

James Vincent is a worshiper, author, speaker, and recording artist. He travels internationally, equipping individuals with the understanding of how to soar in worship and advance the kingdom of God through amazing demonstrations of God's presence, power and love. He fervently desires to see individuals and nations transformed by the undeniable glory of God.

Robyn Vincent also travels internationally. Her strong prophetic anointing and transparent dialogue liberates and activates many into their God-given callings. Robyn's greatest desire is to see radical reformation and spiritual awakening come to every community in the earth.

They reside in Texas and have five beautiful children.
