My dear sisters and brothers,

On the Second Sunday of Easter, the Liturgy of the Word begins with a most beautiful and idealistic text from Acts. Of special significance is the description that the Jerusalem community “was of one heart and mind,” with “everything in common.” How many of us struggle daily to live for the common good!

We hear in today’s gospel that the disciples believed in Jesus because they had direct contact with him, we truly encounter Jesus Christ in the Eucharist, in the healing presence of others, and in acts of forgiveness that are the hallmark of the Christian community. We experience the gift of God’s divine mercy every day.

Today is a good day to think about forgiveness and mercy. We are still living in the joy of Easter. That joy and the promise of being with God forever should make us feel care and kindness even to those who may have done us harm. It is also a good time to ask God to forgive us, too, for anything we have done wrong.

With fond affection, Fr. Hank

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas,

El segundo domingo de Pascua, la Liturgia de la Palabra comienza con un texto bellissimo e idealista de los Hechos. De especial importancia es la descripción de que la comunidad de Jerusalén “era de un solo corazón y mente”, con “todo en común”. ¡Cuántos de nosotros luchamos diariamente por vivir por el bien común!

Escuchamos en el evangelio de hoy que los discípulos creyeron en Jesús porque tuvieron contacto directo con él, verdaderamente encontramos a Jesucristo en la Eucaristía, en la presencia sanadora de los demás y en los actos de perdón que son el sello de la comunidad cristiana. Experimentamos el don de la divina misericordia de Dios todos los días.

Hoy es un buen día para pensar en el perdón y la misericordia. Seguimos viviendo la alegría de la Pascua. Ese gozo y la promesa de estar con Dios para siempre deberían hacernos sentir cuidado y bondad incluso hacia aquellos que nos hayan hecho daño. También es un buen momento para pedirle a Dios que nos perdone a nosotros también por cualquier cosa que hayamos hecho mal.

Con cariño, Padre Enrique

STEWARDSHIP

Managing God's Gifts To Us

"When the risen Christ encounters his disciples in the locked room he adds a new Beatitude to the ones we've heard proclaimed before: "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Stewards of the mysteries of God's love do not need proof of the risen Christ. They know it because their lives have been transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit who has breathed new life into them and through the Sacrament of the Eucharist which strengthens and sustains them. As stewards of this great gift it is appropriate to reflect on how we in turn add new life into our parish communities."

A Stewardship Prayer for April

Oh Blessed Lord! Oh Risen Lord! We look through the crosses we have carried this past year and give you thanks for the awe-inspiring hope that Easter brings. We give you thanks for calling us your friends and allowing us to share in the sacrifice of your of your body and blood, which is poured out for many. Oh merciful Lord, redeemer and teacher, by the power of the Holy Spirit give us the patience and insight to listen to you during this time of continued uncertainty. Give us the wisdom to find creative ways to put the Eucharist into action; and give us the courage to bring your Easter message of hope to a world that desperately needs your love. To you be glory and honor forever and ever. Amen

"Cuando Cristo resucitado se encuentra con sus discípulos en la habitación cerrada, añade una nueva bienaventuranza a las que hemos oído proclamar antes: "Bienaventurados los que no han visto y han creído". Los administradores de los misterios del amor de Dios no necesitan pruebas de Cristo resucitado: lo saben porque sus vidas han sido transformadas por el poder del Espíritu Santo que ha insuflado nueva vida en ellos y por el Sacramento de la Eucaristía que los fortalece y sostiene. "Como administradores de este gran regalo, es apropiado reflexionar sobre cómo nosotros, a su vez, añadimos nueva vida a nuestras comunidades parroquiales".

Una oración de mayordomía para abril

¡Oh Bendito Señor! ¡Oh Señor Resucitado! Miramos a través de las cruces que hemos cargado el año pasado y les damos gracias por la esperanza impresionante que trae la Pascua. Te damos gracias por llamarnos tus amigos y permitirnos compartir el sacrificio de tu cuerpo y de tu sangre, que es derramada por muchos. Oh Señor misericordioso, redentor y maestro, por el poder del Espíritu Santo danos la paciencia y la perspicacia para escucharte durante este tiempo de continua incertidumbre. Danos la sabiduría para encontrar formas creativas de poner la Eucaristía en acción; y danos el valor de llevar tu mensaje de esperanza de Pascua a un mundo que necesita desesperadamente tu amor. A ti sea la gloria y la honra por los siglos de los siglos. Amén
