

HERMAN BUSTAMANTE JR./T

Saving a piece of history

TWO-STORY Victorian-style house is slowly towed along Alcatraz Avenue in Berkeley on Saturday. The house, built in 1902, was saved from destruction when Aaron Vitale bought it for $1. The house will sit at 2924 Sacramento St., where it will be turned into a law office.