M3Sixty Enterprises Launches Advisory Affiliate and Names Key Investment and Management Executives

FAIRWAY, Kan., January 8, 2024 – M3Sixty Capital, LLC (“Capital”) was launched with a vision to provide access to fully vetted traditional and alternative asset managers. Managers that were historically only available to institutional and ultra-high net worth investors. To help execute their holistic and comprehensive strategy, they have recently hired several industry veterans to fill key roles in the M3Sixty Capital organization.

“We are extremely excited to launch a firm with the caliber of professionals we have secured. Their institutional knowledge, focus and experience working together will ensure we deliver successful products to our clients, enhance firm-wide collaboration and ultimately accelerate the growth of the firm,” said Randy Linscott, Chief Executive Officer & Managing Member of M3Sixty Enterprises, LLC and Chairman of Capital.

Gary DiCenzo, Michael Stack and Richard Yates have joined the management team as Chief Executive Officer, Chief Investment Officer and Chief Legal Counsel/Chief Compliance Officer, respectively, of Capital.

DiCenzo and Stack worked together in similar roles for almost a decade at Multi-billion dollar asset manager, Scout Investments. With their shared success and extensive combined firm management, portfolio management and distribution experience, Capital is poised to capitalize on our unique value proposition.

Yates has spent most of his career representing businesses primarily in the financial services sector. He has extensive experience representing investment advisors, broker-dealers, banks, and both registered and private funds, as well as operating businesses and served as General Counsel and Chief Compliance Officer at Manning & Napier for eighteen years.

Also joining the firm on the portfolio management team is Angel Lupercio as Portfolio Manager/Analyst. Stack and Lupercio worked together with members of the management team at Scout Investments for over a decade. Together they bring an impressive track record coupled with expertise managing multi-billion dollar portfolios to M3Sixty Capital.

“Several of the key professionals at the firm have worked together for many years and we are very comfortable and familiar with their experience and capabilities. This will only enhance our ability to quickly bring our current and future institutional quality solutions to the marketplace,” shared Gary DiCenzo, Chief Executive Officer of M3Sixty Capital, LLC.
