M3Sixty Capital Announces the Launch of their Small Cap Growth Mutual Fund (MCSCX)

FAIRWAY, Kan., June 28, 2023 - M3Sixty announced today its partnership with Bridge City Capital (Bridge City) to bring the M3Sixty Small Cap Growth Fund (MCSCX) to the marketplace. Bridge City brings a 14-year institutional separate account track record in the small cap space to a mutual fund structure.

“We are very excited to be able to demonstrate the power of M3Sixty’s comprehensive service offering as Bridge City is supported by all facets of our offering,” said Randy Linscott, Chief Executive Officer & Managing Member of M3Sixty Enterprises, LLC and Chairman of Capital.

Bridge City brings a team of five portfolio managers to the fund and a historical track record of outperformance. This partnership brings an institutional manager that has not been available in this structure to a wider audience. In addition to the mutual fund, M3Sixty Capital is supporting Bridge City’s Small Cap Growth separate account management to institutional channels.

“Investors that have historically not had access to an institutional manager with the expertise of Bridge City, will now have the opportunity to invest with a manager that has a demonstrated track record in the small cap growth category,” said Gary DiCenzo, Chief Executive Officer of M3Sixty Capital.

Bridge City Capital enables M3Sixty Funds to bring a 14-year track record to the registered fund marketplace. Their vast experience will help a greater number of investors allocate to an institutional quality small cap growth manager.

“We could not be happier with our partnership with M3Sixty Enterprises. We have been looking for a solution like this and feel confident that this relationship will be extremely beneficial for all parties,” said Alex Woodward, Managing Partner of Bridge City Capital.
