

Potential Donation Form

The Museum at the Bighorns cannot accept unsolicited donations dropped off at the museum or mailed to us. Before items are acquired for the collections, they go through a rigorous review process. The more information you can provide, the easier it will be for the Collections Committee to make a timely and informed decision about your offer. Usually, we can respond within four to six weeks, but some offers may take longer to review. Please send this form describing your donation offer to collections@museumbighorns.org. Please include digital photos and other relevant documentation.
