EL MATRIMONIO

VI. La Iglesia doméstica

1657 Aquí es donde se ejercita de manera privilegiada el sacerdocio bautismal del padre de familia, de la madre, de los hijos, de todos los miembros de la familia, "en la recepción de los sacramentos, en la oración y en la acción de gracias, con el testimonio de una vida santa, con la renuncia y el amor que se traduce en obras" (LG 10). El hogar es así la primera escuela de vida cristiana y "escuela del más rico humanismo" (GS 52,1). Aquí se aprende la paciencia y el gozo del trabajo, el amor fraterno, el perdón generoso, incluso reiterado, y sobre todo el culto divino por medio de la oración y la ofrenda de la propia vida.

1658 Es preciso recordar asimismo a un gran número de personas que permanecen solteras a causa de las concretas condiciones en que deben vivir, a menudo sin haberlo querido ellas mismas. Estas personas se encuentran particularmente cercanas al corazón de Jesús; y, por ello, merecen afecto y solicitud diligentes de la Iglesia, particularmente de sus pastores. Muchas de ellas viven sin familia humana, con frecuencia a causa de condiciones de pobreza. Hay quienes viven su situación según el espíritu de las bienaventuranzas sirviendo a Dios y al prójimo de manera ejemplar. A todas ellas es preciso abrirles las puertas de los hogares, "iglesias domésticas" y las puertas de la gran familia que es la Iglesia. «Nadie se sienta sin familia en este mundo: la Iglesia es casa y familia de todos, especialmente para cuantos están "fatigados y agobiados" (Mt 11,28)» (FC 85).

Gospel Match-up

How well do you know today's Gospel story? See if you can match up the first parts with the second parts of what Jesus told the people.

I am the living bread A

1 food indeed,

if any one eats of this bread, B

2 which came down from heaven;

the bread which I shall give for the life of the world C

3 abides in me, and I in him.

Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, D

4 you have no life in you

For my flesh is E

5 is drink indeed.

and my blood F

6 he will live for ever;

He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood G

7 is my flesh.

What does the bread become when the priest consecrates it at Mass?

Marriage
VI. The Domestic Church

1657 It is here that the father of the family, the mother, children, and all members of the family exercise the priesthood of the baptized in a privileged way "by the reception of the sacraments, prayer and thanksgiving, the witness of a holy life, and self-denial and active charity."¹⁶⁸ Thus the home is the first school of Christian life and "a school for human enrichment."¹⁶⁹ Here one learns endurance and the joy of work, fraternal love, generous - even repeated - forgiveness, and above all divine worship in prayer and the offering of one's life.

1658 We must also remember the great number of single persons who, because of the particular circumstances in which they have to live - often not of their choosing - are especially close to Jesus' heart and therefore deserve the special affection and active solicitude of the Church, especially of pastors. Many remain without a human family often due to conditions of poverty. Some live their situation in the spirit of the Beatitudes, serving God and neighbor in exemplary fashion. the doors of homes, the "domestic churches," and of the great family which is the Church must be open to all of them. "No one is without a family in this world: the Church is a home and family for everyone, especially those who 'labor and are heavy laden.'"¹⁷⁰

The Body and Blood of Christ

Today we celebrate the feast day of the Body and Blood of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. At the Last Supper, Jesus knew that He was going to leave His friends. So He turned the bread into His Body and the wine into His Blood - even though they still looked like bread and wine - and told the Apostles to do the same.

Jesus gave the Apostles, who were the first priests, the power to change bread and wine into His Body and Blood in the Mass. Now at every Mass Jesus comes to us on the altar, Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity!

Of course we can't see any change happen when the priest consecrates the bread and wine, but we know that God can do things without us understanding them. He loves us so much that He wants to come to us hidden in Holy Communion. Now it is up to us to love Him back with our whole hearts!
