THEATER

In an interview by a yearbook staff member, Mr. Douglas Clapp stated that he chose the play "Dracula" because "It was near Halloween and I admire vampire stories. They are very appealing to me." Commenting on the time spent on props and other preparations, Clapp indicated that it "took months before this play could be performed on stage." Clapp felt that the play was a "BIG SUCCESS! It was a challenging and positive experience that will live forever. This play was definitely our best yet thanks to all the new equipment and the very hard work everyone put into it."

A very successful drama year closed with the production of "Club Tango," an original gangland musical on May 21 and 22, 1991. Several cast members are pictured above. They are: Barbara Paradis, Angela Olmsted, Rhyné Clapp, Kate White, Ronnie Guerrette, Ariana Talbot, Mira Saucier and Carrie Ouellette.

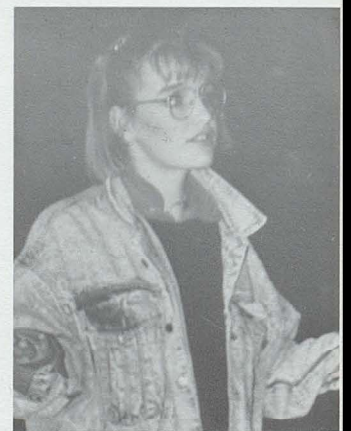

Other plays performed during the 1990-91 school year were: "Oh, What A Tangled Web" by James Carroll, and "The Marriage Proposal" by Anton Chekov.

Wisdom students took the Limestone stage on April 5, 1991 with nine other Division I schools, all winners from their Regional Drama Festivals. The cast and crew did well enough to win the respect of Directors and students from all over the state of Maine. However, Wisdom was not able to place in the top two slots, which would have enabled them to go on to the New England Competitions.

As a result of the state competitions in Limestone on April 5, Three of Wisdom's actresses did receive all festival cast awards. In the above, center photograph are Mr. Douglas Clapp, author and director of the original play "Boom Box" with award winners, Kate White, Naomi Michaud and Tracy Michaud. These three girls are now part of a select group of twenty-four of Maine's best student actors. Congratulations!

Pictured to the left are the cast of the award-winning original play "Boom Box." After competing in the Aroostook Drama Festival, this group of Wisdom actors took first place in The County which enabled them to compete in the State Drama Festival in April. They are, Eric Michaud, Mira Saucier, Kathy Michaud, Treva Aldrete, Ronnie Guerrette, Aaron Labrie, Michael Ouellette, Chris Goggin, Nathan White, Jeff Berube, Kate White, Ryne Clapp, Ariana Talbot, Shawn Fongemie, Naomi Michaud, author/director Douglas Clapp and actress Tracy Michaud.

Peer Educators exist to provide Wisdom students with a select group of individuals with which they may confide should problems or questions arise. The basic theory is that students will find it easier to talk to other students than to adults. This has certainly proven to be true at Wisdom. The trained Peer Educators pictured above are: Kirk Fongemie, Jeff Berube, Naomi Michaud, Amy Cyr, Scott Dubois, (Paula Martin — Guidance Office), Jason McGlaughlin, Jon Violette, Advisor Mrs. Louise Cyr, David Pelletier and Tammy Pelletier.

The Challenger Program sponsored a Science Enrichment Program for grades K-12. A tarantula spider and prairie owl accompanied a slide show presentation on the extinction of species. Dr. James Parker explained how humans can cause animal species to disappear from our environment. The presentation impressed upon students the idea of how delicate nature really is.

PIONEER BAND

MSAD 33 student participation in this year's ALL AROOSTOOK BAND FESTIVAL was especially successful. Our students just keep getting better. Twelve district students were selected to perform as members of the All Aroostook Bands and Choruses. To qualify, the students had to prepare a required solo in addition to demonstrating proficiency in playing seven to nine scales.

At least one of our students placed in each of the four performing organizations. Two of our students in Junior band earned first chair assignments. That means that, of all other students in the county who auditioned, they had the highest score. These two students were Aimee Roy on clarinet and Damienne Olmsted on trombone. This is especially commendable considering the small size of our school district.

In addition to the success of our band students, the Junior High chorus had a small group of students who sang a solos. The results were that two of the seven students who were chosen for the All Aroostook Chorus were from our school.

Participating in the high school band was Ariana Talbot, in the high school chorus was Angela Olmsted. In the Junior High band were Kristin Olmsted, Aimee Roy, Amy Lerman and Damienne Olmsted. Members of the Junior High chorus were: Jennifer Violette, Reuben Talbot, Matthew Deschaine, Mellisa Textor, Nicole Gagnon and Angie Dinsmore. Congratulations to Mrs. Sue Olmsted (band director) and Mrs. Martha Michaud (chorus director) and their students for such a fine showing!

This year the Wisdom Pioneer Chorus performed during the annual Christmas Concert. The high school members included: April Chasse, Patricia Hanlin, Nadia Ouellette, Kim Paradis, Adrien Talbot, Rhynne Clapp, Carla Guerrette, Angela Olmsted, Barbara Paradis and Nick Ouellette. Junior High members were: Jennifer Violette, Kate Fongemie, Barbie Ouellette, Christy Pelletier, Laurie Gagnon, Bryon Clapp, Ryan Boucher and Reuben Talbot.

Band members perform during a political rally held at Wisdom in the fall of 1990.

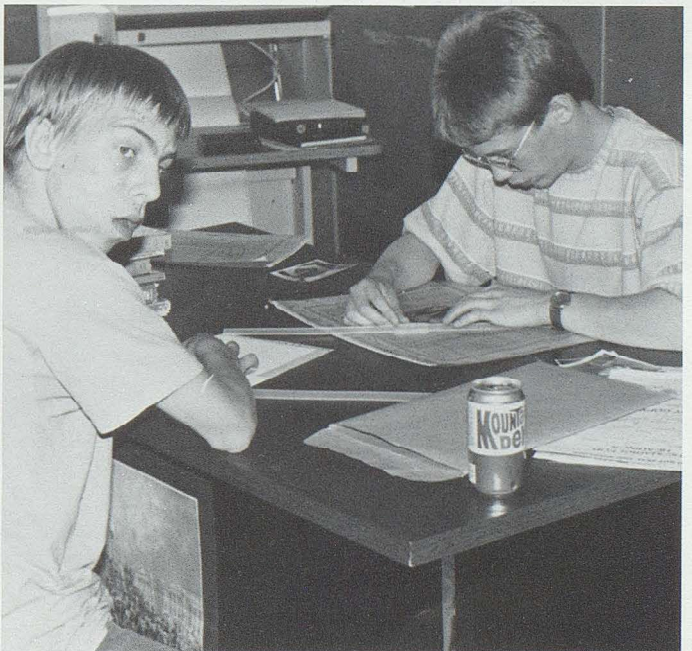

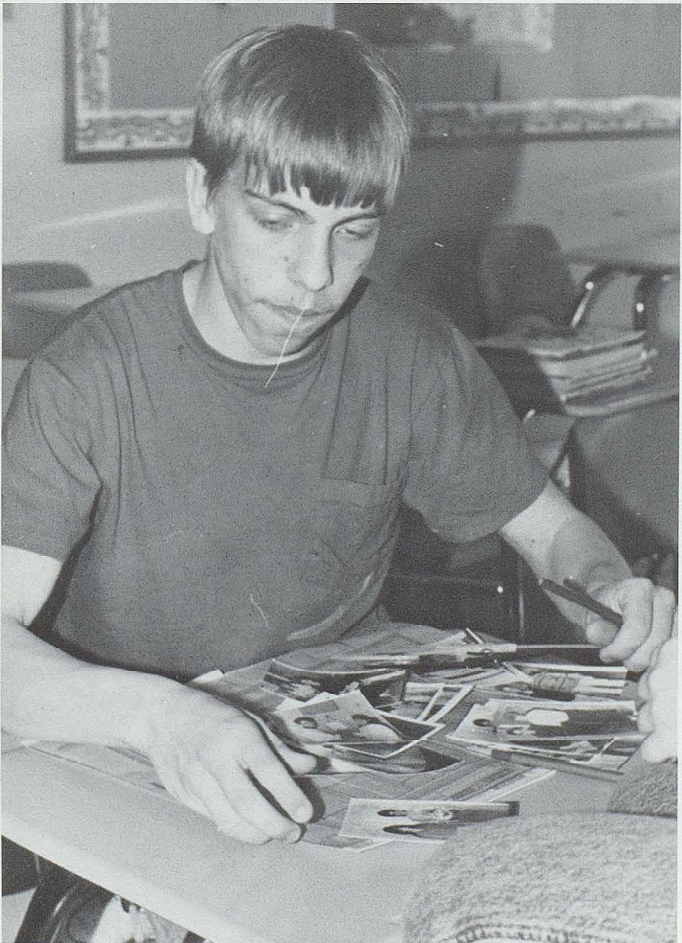

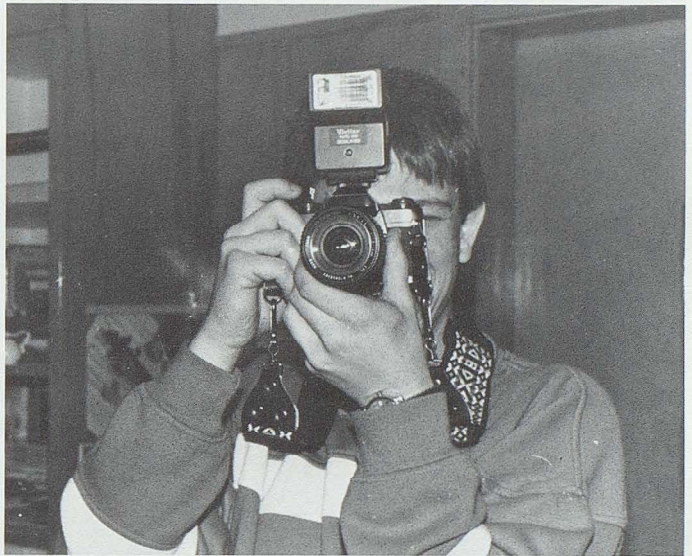

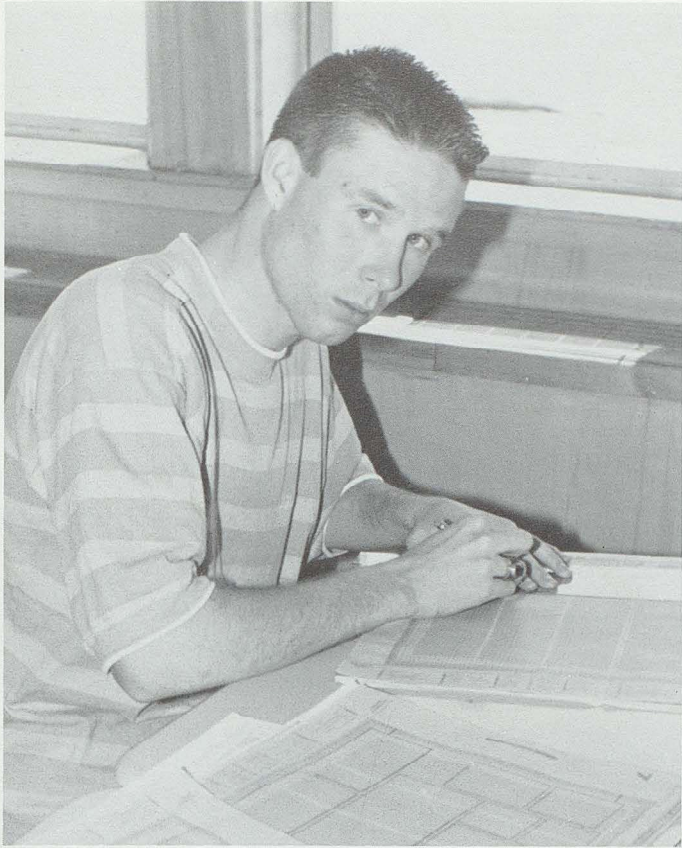

YEARBOOK STAFF

If this years Yearbook Production students learned anything at all it is that putting a yearbook together is a long, difficult, time-consuming task which is very complex and requires much coordination and effort on the part of everyone. Our goals were simple and few this year. We wanted to make sure that names and pictures matched, that there were fewer large pictures so that more pictures should fit into the pages and that we try to get as many students as possible into the yearbook. Please let us know how well we've done. We're always looking to improve.

COACH'S CORNER

A young team is off to a great start! Because this year's team had thirteen Freshmen, some of the team goals were to improve each time the team went on the field to work together and overcome the fear of facing tough skills. At the beginning of the season this was difficult and at times they became discouraged. But, the team pulled together, learned the skills and eventually finished third in Eastern Maine.

Special honors were awarded to several team members. Named as St. John Valley All-Stars were Tina Bourgoïn, Treva Aldrete and Paula Collin. On the Eastern Maine All State Class D team were Treva Aldrete and Paula Collin. Treva Aldrete was also named to the Aroostook County All Star team and the Maine Sunday Telegram All State team.

EASTERN MAINE SOCCER

Winning a spot on the Eastern Maine All-Star Team is a great honor and privilege because this team is made up of the best soccer players of Eastern Maine.

"I was proud of myself!"

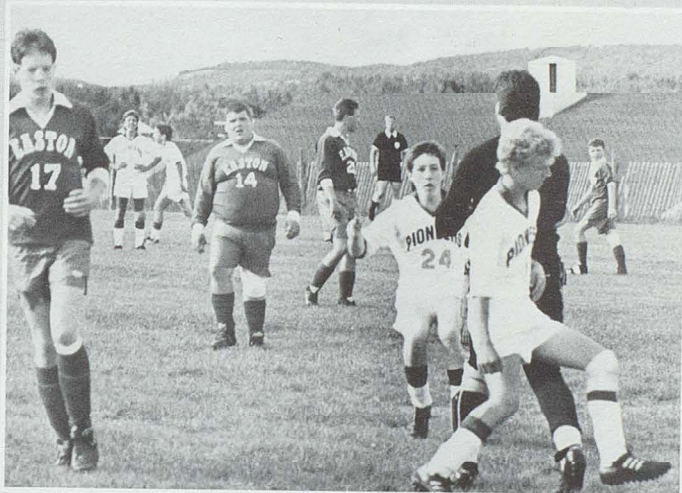

When Scott Gagnon was interviewed about earning a spot on the Eastern Maine All-Star Soccer Team, he stated that he didn't think he would have won it. He said, "I was very proud of myself." He was happy because it was one of his biggest goals for the season.

COACH'S CORNER

Our goals for the season were to increase our defense to prevent opponents from scoring and we accomplished this goal. Our best game was against Madawaska. Our team did very well throughout the game. However, we lost. I feel there were some psychological issues that affected us as Madawaska is our number one rival.

Next season, our team should be even stronger. Two Seniors are leaving but the upcoming Junior High players are already a very good group.

VOLLEYBALL

GIRL'S VOLLEYBALL

In an interview with coach Joe Deschaine, he was given an opportunity to express himself fully regarding his experience with this year's girl's volleyball team. He stated that, "Our goals for this year were to master all the skills necessary to play as well as possible and to again be the best serving team in the tournament. Accomplishing that, we would be ready." When asked if his team attained these goals, Deschaine answered, "Yes, we did. We served extremely tough, received the ball very well, set up well, and spiked some really good balls."

Reflecting on his biggest and most rewarding challenge Deschaine indicated that having as many girls as we did staying with the team was quite a challenge. Seeing each one of them improve and play very well was truly rewarding. In closing, Deschaine said, "It was a tremendous pleasure working with such nice people, and, it shows once again what our kids are capable of when given the opportunity."

In the final analysis we must extend our sincere congratulations to the girl's volleyball team and Joe Deschaine for once again being the Aroostook League B-Division Girl's Volleyball CHAMPIONS!!!
