

THE PIONEER

TWO THOUSAND
FOURTEEN

Dave Pelletier

Dave has been working for MSAD #33 for the past 25 years. When not driving the bus or helping with janitorial duties, Dave can be found working the land on his 15 plus acre farm. Never seen without a smile (or his hat), Dave is one of those individuals you know you can rely on for just about anything.

1. Dave, are you strong enough to lift that bus?
2. Dave and his wife, Beverly on their wedding day.
3. The 2013 girls soccer team poses with our dedicatee before their preliminary game.
4. Dave with his mother Laura, father Alberie and brother Carroll.
5. Dave with the 2011 Seniors on their way to Tech in the morning.

Top: The new #14...shiny and ready to go.
Middle: Dave working on his farm.

"The unsung hero of Wisdom, Dave is always willing to help with a positive attitude... and yes, we always promise to not make a mess on your bus. Thank you Dave, for all that you do!"
 - The Class of 2014

The Pelletier family: Dave, Steve, Nikki, Hailee, Jason, Beverly, Pierce, Stacy, Abigail, Jessica and Lydia

"Dave's a hard worker, he works both here and at the elementary school. He helps with the oil changes on the buses and around the garage. Whatever needs to be done, Dave is ready to go."
 - Don and Fern

"Here's to the crazy ones. The misfits. The rebels. The trouble-makers. The round pegs in the square holes. The ones who see things differently... they change things. They push the human race forward. And while some may see them as the crazy ones, we see genius."

THE GRADUATE'S

FROM THE BEGINNING TO THE END

Most of the Class of 2014 started their education with Ms. TO. Now, during our senior year, she still has something to teach us...bringing our education full circle.

School silverware, windows, and tables

Throughout the seniors' high school career, we've found ways to make things our own. The road we have travelled has not always been the straight and narrow, but we have paid the price for our wandering and redecorating. In the end the Class of 2014 will be remembered for making Wisdom interesting on a daily basis.

Various utensils consistently left behind after Senior homeroom.

Students found crying and eating on the new library floor!

Senior year can be the most stressful year or the laziest year, thankfully the library floor has always been there for either situation. When we've lost all hope or are too tired from testing, we find comfort in the warm, hard embrace of the rug. While we take a quick breather from classes and stress, we are also treated to free advice from Mrs. Boucher.

REALLY COOL, ICE COOL

Students have noticed Justin Pelletier bulking up lately, but rumor has it it's all fake. Sources say that he's been stuffing his sweaters with packs of ice before leaving the locker rooms. Witnesses also say they've seen wet spots on his shoulders, which may prove the rumors of the ice packs.

CHAMPS

Volleyball, snow soccer, and the cookoff were all competitions taken by the Seniors during this year's Winter Carnival. The 2014 Senior volleyball roster was Justin Pelletier, Jose Martinez, Nate Boynton, Tim Laroque, Shawn Bouley, Evan Esancy, Alyssa Dumond, Taylor Hobbs, and Tia Miranda.

Advice from the Experts Column

We've been through quite a bit as a class, so here's our advice to you, the underclassmen:

- Don't... throw erasers, in elementary school, when there is a substitute.
- Do... use a posterboard paper covered in notes if your teacher allows you to have a "cheat sheet" for the midterm.
- Don't... expect to get sleep during Junior year.
- Do... adopt a pet fly in Mr. Textor's class
- Don't... touch school property. It gets expensive... ask Shawn.
- Do... dominate in snow sculptures.
- Do... bring teachers their favorite food.

"You'll never understand seniors until you are a senior."
- Tia

"Who says nothing is impossible in school? I've been doing nothing for years."
- Shane

"If nobody in your class had an annual halloween party... you missed out."
- Alyssa

"Don't push me! I'm like 5 years ahead of you."
- Evan E.

"Don't wait 'til the last minute to do your AP assignments. Well, don't wait 'til the last minute to do your homework either... Actually just don't procrastinate."
- Taylor

"I would, but I'm working." This is a phrase said very often by the Class of 2014. Working hard is in their blood, many of them have been working since they could walk. From waitressing to the military, this class always finds a job that they can excel at. Their good work ethic is a quality that will serve them throughout college and their future career paths. When they work, they do it to the best of their ability, giving everything they have, heart and soul. You can usually count on them to get the job done and done well.

The Class of 2014 has a wide variety of vehicles. We've been working hard for our vehicles since before we can remember, and they return the favor. Between the trucks and the cars, we've towed our friends out of mud, totaled a couple, changed many tires and done a few donuts. We've lost fuses, hubcaps, rocker panels, side mirrors, and invested lots of money in air freshners, tint, and paint. In the end, our vehicles will always be a part of the Class of 2014.

Senior Switch Day

A fun day with the kids at 1-2-3 Playgroup.

Every day students go to the SJVTC to learn the trade of their choice, preparing for possible future professions. During senior year they get to switch trades for a day and learn what other students do in a typical day at the Tech Center.
