

EUROTRIP 2004

Students from both schools take a moment for a group photo.

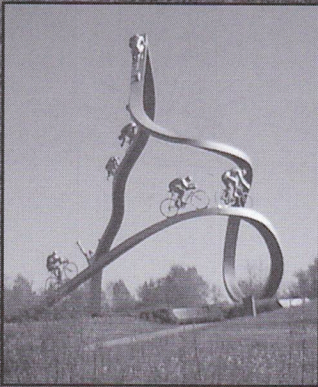

Tony and Michelle in front of one of the many paintings they saw on this trip.

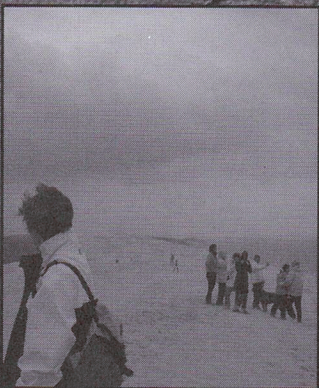

Tracy, Michelle, and Tony in front of some beautiful landscaping.

Tracy, Ms. Hobbs, and Michelle in front of the Eiffel Tower.

This is a monument to commemorate the Tour De France.

The Students in front of the entrance to one of the cathedrals they visited while in Europe.

Students from the Wisdom and Madawaska High Schools left for their Europe Trip on April 15. Their trip started in France. They toured the City of Paris and visited historical sites such as the Louvre Museum and the Notre-Dame Cathedral. Their trip also continued into Spain. Here they toured the city of Barcelona. They visited Arcachon, and climbed Europe's largest sand dunes. Also while in Barcelona they visited the site of the 1992 Summer Olympics. Their last stop in Europe was Munich, Germany. From there they flew to Toronto, Ontario, then to Montreal, Quebec, and took a bus back to Madawaska. The students that went on this trip said it was an opportunity of a lifetime.
