Good evening and welcome to the final concert of our 67th season! Tonight we complete our season of "Inspired Performances" with a concert of music inspired by the Middle Ages.

It is such a pleasure and privilege to work with our talented soloists, choruses and dancers on our performance of Carl Orff's Carmina Burana. From the instantly recognizable opening through various tales of fortune, springtime, love and debauchery, Orff's music delights audiences and performers as few other pieces do. Please take some time, if you can, to read through the text—some of it might really surprise you!

Although not nearly as well known, Rainbow Body, by Christopher Theofanidis, is a piece that I have wanted to program for the past couple of years. It is a tuneful and colorful fantasy for orchestra based on a Gregorian chant written by Hildegard von Bingen. Theofanidis takes the soulful, sublime character of the chant melody and illuminates it with the combined forces of the whole symphony orchestra.

I hope that you have enjoyed our 2011-2012 season and I hope to see you at our concerts next season. Thanks as always for your continued support! 🎻

The Mid-Columbia Mastersingers, led by Artistic Director Justin Raffa, is an auditioned ensemble of select singers that have been bringing outstanding choral music to Southeastern Washington for over 25 years. Their mission is to transform lives through the power of choral music, creating a world where choral music is valued and supported by the community and is accessible to people of all ages and cultures. Presenting a series of four to five concerts throughout the season, they perform works from the rich tradition of choral music, as well as music from contemporary composers. A versatile and dynamic group, they also sing at local special events and regularly appear with symphonies throughout the region, including the Mid-Columbia, Walla Walla, Yakima, and Oregon East Symphony Orchestras. Throughout their current Silver anniversary season, the Mastersingers have featured works of Tri-City composer Reginald Unterseher as part of a year-long guest artist residency. Upcoming performances include the world premiere of Unterseher's "Song of a Dream" at the Rotary District 5080 Conference in June and the annual Fourth of July outdoor concert at Flat Top Park in West Richland. 🎵

The Yakima Symphony Chorus (YSC) is the official choral ensemble of the Yakima Symphony Orchestra and performs with the Orchestra several times each season. The auditioned Chorus members are from all walks of life and volunteer to make the YSC the success it is. The Chorus has performed around the world including Basel, Switzerland; Vienna, Austria; Beijing and Shanghai, China; and Prague, Czech Republic. This past season included John Rutter's Requiem, a Christmas Pops Concert with the YSO, a USO Show honoring the work of the United Service Organization, and most recently, a performance of Mozart's famous opera The Marriage of Figaro with the YSO and the Lamont School of Music from the University of Denver. We look forward to the collaboration with the Mid-Columbia Mastersingers and hope it will continue in the future.

Scott R. Peterson has been Chorusmaster since 1977 and has conducted the YSC as its own entity over the past three and a half decades, including a performance of Mozart's famous Requiem in Carnegie Hall, New York, with the Manhattan Philharmonic Orchestra. He is a proud graduate of Midland University in Fremont, Nebraska;

Central Washington University and the University of Washington ("Go, Huskies!"). Scott is past president of the Northwestern Division of the American Choral Directors Association and is a recently retired member of Male Ensemble Northwest. He is Director of Choral Activities at Yakima Valley Community College where he has been on the faculty since 1976. 🎵
