The Ensemble of Oregon is Oregon's premiere professional vocal & instrumental chamber ensemble and is dedicated to strengthening the cultural life of its community through innovative musical experiences.

The Ensemble's concerts educate through the exploration of different eras and styles and seek to bring neglected forms of music to light.

The Ensemble brings together many of the most active and accomplished members of the Portland musical landscape, each contributing a wealth of experience to the final artistic product.

"Expressive, well-tuned harmonies throughout."

MIKE BRYAN, SOPRANO SAXOPHONE

Mike currently lives in Richland, where he is the band director at Chief Joseph Middle School. Mike has 14 years of teaching experience in public schools, including years teaching in the Richland School District and Vancouver School District. Bands under Mike's direction have found a consistent success through their performances at festivals and in other educational concert experiences. Mike also performs regularly as a professional saxophone player in the Tri-Cities area, and is a founding member of the Columbia Basin Jazz Orchestra, a group in which he currently performs. Mike earned a Bachelor of Music in Education from the University of Oregon and a Masters of Music in Instrumental Conducting from American Band College. Mike also works as a clinician at several festivals and educational events in the Northwest, including several years of teaching at the Jazz Dialogue Middle School Jazz Camps at Eastern Washington University.
