BIOGRAPHY

From an early age, DJ Suavesmooth has played events big, and small all over the Chicagoland area. He started DJ'n in middle school, where he joined the radio club. There he learned how to use a basic mixer, and studio equipment. After tons of practice, this led him to DJ his school dances. Eventually, he started DJ'n private parties, and skating rinks. He went on to graduate high school, and attended Illinois Center for Broadcasting in Lombard, Illinois. This is where he perfected his mic skills, and created many popular radio shows. During this time he started DJ'n clubs, and bars all over the Chicagoland area. Fast forward to today, where DJ Suavesmooth has built a strong following, and has been a major influence in the local entertainment scene. He is known for his smooth blends, transitions, and mic work. It's very common for him to get the crowd to sing along or interact with the music. His passion is bringing people together through music, and fun events. He is experienced in all genres of music and can accommodate his dj sets to any client requests.
