

PROCEDURES FOR CONDUCTING AREA L.E.G.S. BUSINESS

1. Point of Information: If a Committee member needs certain information before making a decision about a motion at hand, that member can say at any time to the Chairperson, "Point of information". This means, "I have a question to ask", not "I have information to offer". One does not need a second to raise a point of information; it is neither debatable nor to be voted upon. The person raising the point of information may ask the question of either the Chairperson or another member of the Body. Explanation: To replace present procedure on point of information. [01-19-95]
2. Procedure to Call for a Vote: Any GSR may call for a vote by raising a hand and being recognized by the Chair. The person holding the floor is not to be interrupted. A second by a GSR is required and is debatable by GSR's only. Call for a vote motions can be passed by unanimous consent; unless there is an objection by one GSR. If there is one objection, a majority is needed by GSRs to pass.
3. Equal Time: If in the discussion the majority of the comments are leaning to pro or con, the Chair will recognize opposing comments to equal out the discussion.
4. Point of Order: If it appears to a Committee member that something is happening in violation of the Rules of Order, and if the Chairperson has not yet done anything about it, the member can ask the Chairperson for clarification of the rules at any time. The member may simply say out loud, "Point of Order". The Chairperson then says, "What is your point of order?" The member then states the question and asks the Chairperson for clarification. If the Chair agrees that the rules are not being followed, the Chair says, "Your point is well taken" and restates the appropriate rule. If the Chair does not agree, the Chair says "Overruled." The decision, as all others, can be appealed. Explanation: To replace present procedure on Point of Order. [02-19-95]
5. Withdraw a Motion: Member who made original motion may withdraw it provided it has a second and a majority vote. It is not amendable or debatable. Member does not interrupt person holding the floor and must be recognized by the Chair.
6. Appeal Decision of the Chair: Any time the Chair makes a decision, that decision may be appealed. Any voting member who wishes to appeal a decision may do so by saying, "I appeal the decision of the Chair." If the appeal is seconded, the Chair then asks, "On what grounds do you appeal my decision?" The member states the reasons. The Chairperson then speaks

Briefly to the intent of the ruling being appealed. The Body may then debate the ruling and the merits of the appeal. A vote is taken, requiring a simple majority to overrule the original decision of the Chair. Explanation: To replace present procedure on Point of Appeal. [02-19-95]

7. To Table: A main motion may be tabled by GSRs only. A second is required. Only one pro/con is allowable. A majority vote is required. Member may not interrupt person holding the floor and must be recognized by the Chair. [12- 10-23]
8. Take from Table: A tabled motion may be taken from the table by GSRs only. A second is required and it is not debatable. A majority vote is required. Member may not interrupt person holding the floor and must be recognized by the Chair. [12-10-23]
9. To Amend: A main motion may be amended only twice by GSRs only. A second is required. It is debatable and a majority vote is required. Member may not interrupt person holding the floor and must be recognized by the Chair. [12-10-23]
  - A. When there is obvious general approval on a minor change to a main motion; by unanimous consent the motion may be informally amended if there is no objection by any one GSR. If one objection exists refer to item #9 in Area's Procedures for Conducting Area L.E.G.S. Business. [02-19-89]
10. To Reconsider: A main motion may be reconsidered at the same meeting or following meeting by GSRs only. A second is required. Member may not interrupt person holding the floor and must be recognized by the Chair. It is not amendable and is debatable by 1pro/2 cons. A majority vote is required. [12-10- 23]
11. That the definition of Business or Policy means: Business – meaning GSRs will vote on the motion at the Area Service Committee meeting. Policy – meaning the motion will be taken back to Groups for conscience then brought back to the next Area Service Committee meeting. [06-18-89] In order to accomplish more business; if the voice vote on Business or Policy is unanimous we suspend the vote by hand.

PROCEDURES FOR CONDUCTING AREA L.E.G.S. BUSINESS

- A. Policy – In order to table a motion voted Policy and coming back from Groups to Area L.E.G.S., it must be accompanied by the conscience of a second Group. Explanation: So that the second is of the Group's conscience. [10-15-92]
- B. In the voting process on motions that after two tables we stop and poll all Groups tabling in order to understand and possibly answer any questions as to why the Groups tabled. Ten minute time limit on questions. Then we vote whether to table motion or not. If the motion is not tabled we then vote on the main motion starting with a new vote count. Explanation: To expedite the voting process. [10-17-99]

12. That a verbal explanation be given to the Area Service Committee when any Area Officer and/or Subcommittee Chairperson leaves early from Area meetings. [02-19-89]

13. Any time that the “abstention votes” supersede the “no votes”, the Chairperson will address the persons voting to abstain. Per Robert's Rules of Order, abstention votes are a conflict of interest. Regarding abstention votes, if the abstention votes are in the majority, the motion in question should be tabled for clarification and/or input. Explanation: To find out if there is a lack of information, understanding, or conflict of the GSR's group conscience. To prevent a motion from failing at the Area Service Committee body due to the further need of clarification. [10-16-94]

14. Motion to Refer: Simple majority is required, is debatable. Sometimes the Committee does not have enough information to make an immediate decision on a main motion. Such motions can be removed from debate and sent to either a Standing Committee or an Ad Hoc Committee for further study. This can be done by a member saying, “I move to refer the motion to such-and-such Committee.” If the motion to refer is seconded, the Body may debate it before voting. If the motion to refer does not pass, the Committee either continues debating the main motion or votes on it. The Subcommittee to which a motion is referred will take it up at its next meeting. The Subcommittee will report back on what it has come up with at the meeting of the full Committee. Explanation: To adhere to proper procedure of conducting business. [02-19-95]

15. Offering a Substitute Motion: Simple majority is required, is debatable. A substitute motion is the same thing as an amendment to a main motion. The only difference is that it is offered to entirely replace the original idea, instead of merely revising a portion of it. It is handled the same way an amendment is handled. Explanation: To adhere to proper procedure of conducting business. [02-19-95]
