

Play and Learn Fall 2024

Early Childhood Education Class for Parents and Toddlers

Class Description This class provides parents with the opportunity to interact with and support their child in an informal educational environment formulated to meet a toddler's physical, social-emotional, language, cognitive, and creative developmental needs. Parents will observe their child's growth and development while promoting parent/toddler interactions. Each session will include a music and movement class. Classes will meet for one hour and thirty minutes on Fridays. Students must be 16 months old by the first-class meeting. An adult must attend class with each child. Class size is limited.

Class Schedule Two classes will be offered:
9:00 am–10:30 a.m. for students aged 21+ months
10:00 am–11:30 a.m. for students aged 16-20 months
