If accepted, parents are responsible for travel expenses, tournament registration, working with Boat Captain and setting up accommodations. All tournaments and circumstances will be different. Some tournaments we will be able to drive to. No matter the tournament there are expenses accrued by the boat captain. Parents are responsible to help the captain with these expenses too.

When we know the anglers that are registered for a particular tournament, working with parents and boat captains, we will make all attempts to find discounts, pair up boat captains with other captains, and make attempts to save money on accommodations. This may include VRBO, AirBnB, or blocks of rooms if available.

Applications should be received prior to tournament registration dates. Once submitted the request will be submitted to the coach committee for discussion and potential approval. Parents and Anglers will be notified if accepted, which Boat Captain and estimated expenses for that particular tournament. For Becker Bass Team local tournaments work directly through your assigned coach for a boat captain. Becker Bass Team does have scholarship funds available for students/parents who need help with travel expenses. The decision of a boat captain will not be based on financial needs. All financial need requests are 100% confidential.
