

Eric Bengston judged an entry of 204 Lionheads

Gail Gibbons served as show secretary & writer

Judging the Ruby Eyed White BOV competition

Dawn Guth (OH) and her Chestnut Junior Buck won Best of Opposite to Breed

Eric studies the standard before selecting Best In Show.

Cathy Denman and her Blue Junior Doe won Best of Breed/Best in Show

The Club Booth, where people could pick up information on the breed manned by club members

The club's members supply a wonderful selection of prizes for the raffle

Club members helped with the show by getting entries up onto the show table

Josh Humphries judged the 2004 NALRC Specialty Show.

Josh giving comments on a nice Chestnut.

Arden Wetzel was the show writer, taking down the judge's comments.

Judging began right after lunch and continued for over 4 hours. Lynda Swan & her daughter, Jessica Swan are watching.

The Black in the classes that went on to win BOS. Bred by Dawn Guth.

Judging the REW classes while a breeder watches

Sanders Wahley the Show Superintendent and Ethan Ufer making sure the next class is ready for judging

Ethan Ufer, carried many of the Lionheads up to the show table. Bob Whitman in the background is making sure the rabbits match the paperwork.

A team of people worked all day to take photos of the winners for the web site.

Ethan Ufer in the Lionhead cooping aisle.

Show Secretary Becky Wahley at her "post" in the booth entering the show results.

Even our footwear was LIONHEADS!

The 2004 Lionhead Club Booth

Julie Kirkke and Ethan Ufer checking ear numbers as they helped get ready for the auction.

One of the huge junior Tortoise classes.
exhibitors watching - Terry White,

Bob Whitman and fellow Texan
Lindie Madden visit between classes.

Judging the Exhibition colors.
Exhibitors watching - Terry White, Anita Holycross,

Exhibitor watched intently

Judging a Broken in the exhibition classes while an exhibitor watches.

Whaley Sanders and Arden
Wetzel watch BOB judging.

Dawn Guth, Victoria and Bob
Whitman - all wondering
"who will win BOB?"

Gail and Sarrah Gibbons also watching intently.

Best in Show/Best of Breed
Basset's Moka, Siamese
Junior Buck bred by Dawn Guth

Josh visits with Susan Rutherford after the judging is completed.