Faithful Navigator Report

Worthy Sir Knights,

Steve Michael
Faithful Navigator

The Easter season is upon us, it's a great time to prepare ourselves for our Lord. Wishing you and your families a Blessed and Happy Easter. I hope that we prepared ourselves to celebrate our Lords Passion and Resurrection. Confession is always a good start. It's also a good time to contact family and friends, especially those who you haven't seen for some time.

The following Sunday is Devine Mercy Sunday. If possible, try attending a Devine Mercy Service on that Sunday. The promise of this day is the forgiveness of all sins and punishment due to sin for anyone who would go to Confession and receive Jesus in Holy Communion on this very special feast.

This month, we are publishing our Slate of Officers. If you wish to run for an office, please let me know. Any brother in good standing can be added to the slate including the day of the election. We are also planning another BBQ for our friends at Veteran's Village after Easter (TBD).

Please read the spiritual message on Easter and spring, from our Faithful Friar Msgr. Stephen Doktorczyk. The devotion for the month of April is the Blessed Sacrament and the Holy Spirit. The article has plenty of information on the Holy Spirit.

Hope to see you at our general meeting.

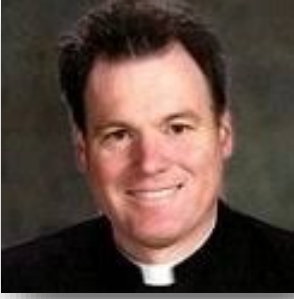

Vivat Jesus!

Faithful Friar's Report

Msgr. Stephen Doktorczyk

Dear Brother Knights,

The time of year that Easter occurs — spring — is a symbol of rebirth and life. In fact, the word Easter itself comes from the name of an ancient goddess of spring (Eoster), a term that has been thoroughly Christianized.

Interestingly, the word “spring” has so many different uses in the English language and many of these forms of the word “spring” can circle around and describe aspects of our feast of Easter today. First, we have the season of spring. Spring is the season of new life, new growth, new beginnings. On Easter we celebrate new life in Christ now risen from the dead, defeating death and winning for us the chance for our salvation. But it is also a chance for us to grow deeper in our faith; a chance to dedicate ourselves to fostering the growth of his kingdom on earth. It is a chance for new growth in our life in imitation of Christ.

Second, a spring is a source of life-giving water, and in the Church our spring of life-giving water is the sacrament of baptism. From ancient times, the sacrament of baptism has been linked to Easter. Let us reflect upon our own baptismal responsibilities and promises and work toward living those out in our daily lives.

The word spring can also be used more generically as the source or foundation of something. Easter Sunday is our source of hope and the foundation of our faith. It is in the resurrected Christ that we find our way to salvation. As St. Paul says, “Just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might live in newness of life.” And the joy of this Easter celebration of new life should inform our everyday actions and should be the wellspring of all our earthly activities.

Also, a spring can be a coil that quickly returns to its original shape after being pressed or pulled. This can aptly describe our lives as followers of Christ — we are often pressed or pulled by the secular world but are called by our baptism to be resilient and return to our mission as faithful witnesses to his Word.

Spring can also be used as a verb to release or free something, as in “to spring from prison.” Easter does the same thing as it springs us from the prison of sin and releases us from the tyranny of death without hope.

And finally, “to spring” is to jump forward. While the first Easter was a historical event of a particular time and place, its impact is universal, timeless, and ongoing. It is a springboard for us to use to leap more fully into the life and teachings of Jesus Christ.

Happy Easter!

Msgr. Stephen Doktorczyk ✚

Month of the Holy Spirit

The month of April (Overview - Calendar) is dedicated to the Holy Spirit. To believe in the Holy Spirit is to profess that the Holy Spirit is one of the persons of the Holy Trinity, consubstantial with the Father and the Son: "with the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified." (Catechism of the Catholic Church)

The Holy Spirit is the Person of Love in the life of God. He is also like a breath, an aspiration of infinite Love, from which we draw the breath of life.

On the day of Pentecost the Divine Spirit communicated such an abundance of life to the whole Church that to symbolize it "there came a sound from heaven, as of a violent wind coming, and it filled the whole house where they (the Apostles) were sitting."

But it is also for us that the Holy Spirit has come, for the group in the Cenacle represented the whole Church. The Holy Spirit came to remain with the Church forever. This is the promise of Jesus Himself. He dwells in the Church permanently and unfailingly, performing in it without ceasing His action of life-giving and sanctification. He establishes the Church infallibly in the truth. It is He Who makes the Church blossom forth with a marvelous supernatural fruitfulness, for He brings to life and full fruition in Virgins, Martyrs, and Confessors those heroic virtues which are one of the marks of true sanctity.

(The Mysteries of the Rosary, Dom Columba Marmion, O.S.B.)

Name and Titles of the Holy Spirit

The Proper Name of the Holy Spirit

"Holy Spirit" is the proper name of the one whom we adore and glorify with the Father and the Son. The Church has received this name from the Lord and professes it in the Baptism of her new children.

The term "Spirit" translates the Hebrew word ruah, which in its primary sense, means breath, air, wind. Jesus indeed uses the sensory image of the wind to suggest to Nicodemus the transcendent newness of him who is personally God's breath, the divine Spirit. On the other hand, "Spirit" and "Holy" are divine attributes common to the three divine persons. By joining the two terms, Scripture, liturgy, and theological language designate the inexpressible person of the Holy Spirit, without any possible equivocation with other uses of the terms "spirit" and "holy."

Titles of the Holy Spirit

When he proclaims and promises the coming of the Holy Spirit, Jesus calls him the "Paraclete," literally, "he who is called to one's side," ad-vocatus. "Paraclete" is commonly translated by "consoler," and Jesus is the first consoler. The Lord also called the Holy Spirit "the Spirit of truth."

Besides the proper name of "Holy Spirit," which is most frequently used in the Acts of the Apostles and in the Epistles, we also find in St. Paul the titles: the Spirit of the promise, the Spirit of adoption, the Spirit of Christ, the Spirit of the Lord, and the Spirit of God — and, in St. Peter, the Spirit of glory.
