SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

Michael A. Guido, D.D.
Metter, Georgia

Everyone feels anxious at one time or another. It is a normal part of life. It is our body's way of telling us that something might be wrong - that we might be facing some potential danger or are feeling symptoms of an illness. If we had no feelings of anxiety, we might put ourselves in all kinds of danger that could end up in disaster.

Anxiety for the Christian however can be more. It may be an "early warning system" that God has put in our hearts, through the Holy Spirit, to get our attention to let us know that something may be going wrong in our walk with Him and He wants us to make things right with Him.

God has many ways to use anxiety to get our attention. He may trouble our hearts when we read His word, listen to a hymn, hear a sermon, speak with Him in prayer, see a picture of His children suffering or when we are having a conversation with a friend. His Spirit is always at work in our hearts and it is good to be troubled with anxiety that comes from God.

The writer of Psalm 94 was having a huge problem with anxiety. He must have been deeply troubled by many things that were overwhelming him and seemingly beyond his control. Note his words: "When anxiety was great within me" - not simply a minor incident, but something very, very troubling.

Then note what happened: Your "consolation" or perhaps better understood as "comfort" - "brought joy to my soul." It is like Jesus saying, "Let not Your heart be troubled. Believe in me. This is my plan for You. Trust Me."

WIN THE LOST AT ANY COST

Way back in the truly good old days when church folks loved the Lord more than the world they would say, Win the lost at any cost, and they meant it. It wasn't just lip service. They were willing to pay the price and sacrifice. Those old traveling preachers that preached for love instead of cash would win the lost whatever the price or cost. Now, so many don't win the lost at any cost, but rather win the lost if it's convenient and brothers and sisters this is no time for complacency. With the world in the condition its in. Many are looking to the president. To the leaders. Looking to some man for the answer. When the answer lies where very few look. In the good book. And if they read it, then they don't heed it. Not many are willing to do what it takes to live the real Christian life and win the lost at any cost. In 2005 I gave up a good paying job to go by faith into a totally charitable ministry and so few are willing to help support this ministry, but they think nothing of going out every Friday night and paying over $25.00 to eat out. I have nothing against folks having a little enjoyment. I like to eat too! Well, I like a lot of things, but when it comes to God's work then I am willing to sacrifice to win the lost at any cost. If you agree and you should, then can you say amen?
