Cimarron Region Porsche Club of America

ARTICLE V. Officers and Elections

- a. The management of the Club shall be vested in the Board of Directors (BOD) consisting of a President, Vice President (President Elect), Secretary and Treasurer. The immediate Past President shall serve as an ex officio member of the BOD in an advisory capacity with voting privileges.
- b. The members of the BOD will hold office for one year, except the Treasurer, which is a two-year term, beginning the first day of the fiscal year following their election and ending the last day of that fiscal year. The President may request to serve a second consecutive term. If approved by the BOD, their name will be placed on the ballot. Should this occur, the Vice President (President Elect) has the option to run for a second consecutive term or terminate their term at the end of the current year. The past President also has the option to remain on the Board for a second term. The President, Vice President and past President must make their wishes known to the BOD and Nominating Committee no later than the first of October. If the past President decided not to remain for a second term, the succeeding Board of Directors in accordance with sub Article d. below will fill the open position. No member will serve for more than two consecutive terms in the same office.
- c. Results of the election shall be announced at the Annual Christmas Party of the Club in December. Such Annual Holiday Party will be held each year at a time and place to be determined by the Board of Directors. Publication in the Club newsletter of the time and place of the Annual Holiday Party at least 30 days prior to such meeting shall be deemed sufficient notice to the membership.
- d. In the event that any officer is unable to complete his term in office, the following succession will prevail: For President the Vice President will succeed. Any office other than that of President, which becomes vacant between terms, will be filled by Presidential appointment with the advice and consent of the Board of Directors.
- e. All meetings for the conduct of Club business shall be conducted with usual parliamentary procedure as specified in Roberts Rules of Order.

ARTICLE VI. Amendments

This Constitution may be amended as prescribed in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE III. Accounts

- a. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the CIMARRON REGION, Porsche Club of America, Inc. shall begin on the first day of January each year and shall terminate on the following 31st of December.
- b. Books. The books of record shall be properly maintained to reflect financial receipts, disbursements, balances and assets of the Club.
- c. Reimbursements. The President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer are designated signers for approving Expense Reimbursement requests. All Expense Reimbursement requests are to be made on the approved Reimbursement Form and require the signature of one member of the Executive Council, with such approval being documented by dated signature. If the requestor is an elected Officer, they cannot approve the request or sign the check for reimbursement.
- d. Audit. The books of the Club shall be audited annually by a committee appointed by the Treasurer with the advice and consent of the Board of Directors, or by a CPA if the Board of Directors so requests.

ARTICLE IV. Election of Officers

- a. Nomination. By the first day of August the Board of Directors will appoint a Nominations Committee consisting of three members who are not themselves currently serving as officers. The September newsletter must contain the names and addresses (email or personal) of this committee or a special mailing shall be made to all members in good standing. The Nominations Committee will accept nomination from the general membership until October 1st. By the October BOD meeting the Nominations Committee shall provide the Club Secretary with a slate of candidates willing to run for the four offices. Should a member wish to place their own name on the ballot they may do by presenting a petition so requesting by October 1st to the Club Secretary supported by ten (10) valid members' signatures. Should no nominations for an office be made or received, the current officer shall remain in office until the succeeding Board of directors finds a replacement.
- b. Election. By the first day of November the Secretary shall mail to each Active Primary Member in good standing a ballot to their last known email address listed in their PCA account. Each ballot shall include the names of all qualified nominees. Due notice shall be given therein that only ballots postmarked on or before Midnight November 15th shall be considered valid. Ballots are cast by mailing the completed ballot to the contact person named on Nominations Committee before the 25th day of November and at least two (2) members of the Nominating Committee not running for office shall open, count and tally all valid ballots and certify the results. As soon as the count has been completed the Nominations Committee shall notify the President who shall immediately cause to be notified all successful candidates of their election. Unsuccessful candidates may audit said results on request to the Nominations Committee. Actual ballot tally shall remain closed to all others.
