

Prophecy by Marjorie – November 15, 2020

Yes, I, the creator of the heavens and the earth, the heavens and the earth; I am orchestrating everything. I am the great orchestrator; I am the great orchestrator. I am the one who composes the symphony. I am the one who composes the symphony of time and of ages. I am the one who has begun and have I not said that I will finish it? Have I not said that I will complete the good work that I have begun in you? Because I am the great orchestrator, I am the one that pulls everything together. I'm not surprised about this and about that, I know all things, I see all things, I am present in every space in every time throughout history and for eternity, because I am orchestrating all things according to My plan.

Man may think he has his plans, and sure enough, and well enough he has his plans, but I sovereignly bring all things together in My time, in My ways, and in My purposes, I pull it all together.

So don't be discouraged, don't be down hearted, don't be dismayed, for I am the good Shepherd and I am holding you close today. You are in My fold, don't be worried, don't be afraid, you're in My fold. Stay close to Me, stay close to My heartbeat, stay close to Me, says the Lord. Stay close to Me.

And as you worship Me and as you praise Me you will see your enemies flee. You will see them flee in terror before you. For your warfare is not of the flesh and blood of the natural realm, yes it manifests that way but it's not birthed there, it's in the supernatural in the spirit realm. But as you worship Me, I route My armies and the schemes of the devil are confused and they're brought to annihilation. I will complete the perfect work that I have begun in you, says the Lord.
