

Prophecy by Marjorie – January 12th, 2020

Yes, did I not tell you in My word today, ‘do not fear’? Did I not tell you in My word today, ‘do not fear’? Didn’t I tell you through My son, David, that if you call on Me, I will answer you and I will deliver you from all of your fears? My word also says that in the world you will have tribulation but be of good cheer for I have overcome the world, says the Lord. I have overcome, I already did it, I did it at the cross, I did it through the cross, I did it through the power of the Holy Spirit who was at work in Me both to will and to do according to the Fathers good pleasure. For the Holy Spirit was enabling Me to do what I needed to do.

So, draw on the Holy Ghost for He is able to deliver you. He will give you the words, He will give you the power to overcome. He will give you the power to resist fear when fear comes knocking at the door. He will give you the power to resist in My name.

Do not fear, do not fear. Lay a hold of Me, do not fear, says the Lord today, do not fear. Do not fear what you see, do not fear what you hear, do not fear. Get in My word and let My word be the sure word of prophecy, for I am the sure word of prophecy, I Jesus, am the sure word of prophecy. My Holy Ghost will help you; My Holy Spirit will help you today, says the Lord.
