

Prophecy by Marjorie – April 30th, 2023

One era is coming to a close, says the Lord, one era in My span of eternity is coming to a close. Be ready, like I told the church of Philadelphia, I know you are weak, but be strong for he who endures to the end shall be saved, and him I will make pillars in the temple of My God. One era is coming to an end, one time-frame in My space of eternity is soon coming to a close.

So look up, don't be dismayed of what you're seeing round about you, for the era of My church age, is soon coming to a close. It is soon coming to a close. Look up, look up and be encouraged today, for your redemption draws near. Didn't I say that I go to My Father's house, and I prepare mansions for you? Don't you know how much I want you to be with Me, says the Lord, don't you know how much I long to show you My glory? Don't you know how much I long to show you My glory, My Father's glory that He has prepared for you from the foundations of the earth?

Don't be dismayed, don't be dismayed, look up, look up today, stand strong, stand strong, stand strong, for My Spirit is within you to stand strong and having done everything, stand, and having done everything stand. Don't be dismayed, don't be downhearted and say I just wish this would end, look at it through My eyes, look at it the eyes of how I see creation, how I have set things in order for times and seasons. For I put men in, and I take men out, I put Kings in and I put them out. I am the one who has the heart of the king in My hand and like the water course, I channel it and I direct it, as I choose, says the Lord. Don't be dismayed today, be encouraged, look up, look up for your redemption is close.
