

Prophetic Word by Pastor Richard - January 6th, 2019

I'm raising up a church, an end time remnant. A church that will not walk the broad and wide, but a church that will walk the straight and narrow as I've commanded them to. I'm raising up a church in this end time, that will resist the broad and wide false teaching. They will hear my voice and no other voice will they listen to, says the Lord. They will not listen to another. I call them to a straight and narrow walk today, I call you to a straight and narrow walk, I call you to enter through the narrow gate today, says the Lord.

I call you to resist the broad and wide, I call you to resist the devil and he will flee from you. I call you walk upright, to fear me says the Lord, to keep my commandments at all costs. What profits a man if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul, says the Lord? What profits a man if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul? Therefore, set your mind on things above, not on things below where moth and rust destroy and thieves break in and steal. Set your mind on things above, set your mind on things above, not on things below, where moth and rust destroy and thieves break in and steal.

I'm raising up a church, I'm raising up a remnant, I'm raising them up who will resist the broad and wide and will walk the straight and narrow. Walk the straight and narrow, says the Lord. Walk it. Square up your shoulders and walk it. Take that weight off your back and put it at my feet, put it at the cross. Square your shoulders. Stand with the pride of Christ in you today. Stand with the dignity to walk upright, to fear Me, to keep my commandments, says the Lord. I'll watch over my word to perform it in you. I'll watch over it, that's my job, I'll watch over it. You do your job, I'll do my job, says the Lord.

Walk upright, always, stay on the straight and narrow. Resist that broad and wide road that leads to destruction. Resist it. Resist the false teaching that would lead you down a road of destruction. Resist it! Run from it! Run from it I say! Do not even entertain it, run from it, says the Lord! And I will bless you, you'll be blessed coming in, you'll be blessed going out, the blessings of Abraham will overtake you wherever you go as you walk that straight and narrow. Walk it, says the Lord. Walk it out, walk it. It might get lonely, but walk it. And as you do, I will bless it, I will bless wherever you go, and wherever your feet tread, I will give it to you, says the Lord. Wherever your feet are treading, I will give it to you, says the Lord. I will watch over my word to perform it. I will watch over it, I will watch over it and I will continue to watch over it.
