So the Lord says, rejoice in your humility, rejoice in being a foolish thing, rejoice in a thing that is confounding the wise, rejoice today your perceived low estate. But you're not low in My estate, you are highly esteemed in My eyes, says the Lord. You are highly esteemed in My eyes. Yes, the world thinks you foolish, yes, the world thinks you're not wise, yes, the world mocks that you don't have all of the education that they want you to have.

But do not be deceived, I am not mocked. In My eyes, you are chosen, you are the apple of My eyes. You are the apple of My eyes, says the Lord. So rejoice, rejoice, rejoice, rejoice, rejoice and again I say rejoice. Rejoice, rejoice in being considered a foolish thing of this world, rejoice in it, embrace it. For it is not to be scoffed at in My eyes. I am not scoffing at it in My eyes. No, but I rejoice in you. I rejoice in you. And even as My word says in Zephaniah, I rejoice over you with singing, says the Lord. I rejoice over My servants. I rejoice. I rejoice. So press in, press hard, and do not be discouraged, do not become faint-hearted, but press in, and press on to the upward calling of God in Christ Jesus, says the Lord.
