them further away from the relegation area.

In the remaining game, goals by Keane Griffin, Tommy Molloy (pen), Ryan Gallagher and Charlie Filipe eased Mervue United B to a 4-0 home win over Dynamo Blues.

SCHOOLBOYS

Knocknacarra are through to the Last 16 of the SFAI U-15 Cup following a 4-1 win over Limerick visitors Granagh at Cappagh Park, as David Igbokwe (2), Rory Dixon and Rory Boyle were all on the mark for the home side.

Mervue United also advanced in the U-13 Cup with an impressive 3-0 away win over Pike Rovers in Limerick. Shane Fahy, Charlie Claxton, and Jamie Corcoran were all on the mark for the visitors.

However, there was no joy for Salthill Devon who were beaten 5-0 by St Joseph's in the same competition; while Maree/Oranmore also exited when beaten 1-0 by Waterford Bohemians.

COLLINGWOOD CUP

NUI Galway's venture in the Collingwood Cup ended at the semi-final stage in Dublin on Tuesday when they were beaten 4-0 by Queens University Belfast. In the other last four contest UCD were 2-1 winners over Maynooth.

CONNACHT JUNIOR CUP%

The fifth round of the Connacht Junior Cup takes place this weekend with 11 Galway sides left in the Last 16 of the competition. Salthill Devon are the holders and they will welcome

Ballymoe in Drom tomorrow at 7pm; while Colga are in action at the same venue, and take on Claremorris at 4pm.

All the remaining ties are on Sunday, with Hibernians meeting Corrib Rangers in Bohermore at 11am. Mervue United have two sides remaining with the A team heading to Sligo to meet Ballisodare; while the B team have a home tie against Strand Celtic.

Maree/Oranmore have one of the big games of the round and they face Castlebar Celtic in Maree. Athenry face a stiff task when they take to the road to meet Boyle Celtic who are more than capable of creating an upset. The remaining game sees the meeting of Dynamo Blues and Ballinasloe Town in Tuam.

Games off

JUST as we were going to press, the Galway City Council announced it was closing all its pitches again weekend due to the weather. All games scheduled for these pitches are now postponed and will be refixed later in the season.
