

Elverys

Supporting Sport

MAKE IT YOUR GAME

Every journey requires hard work and dedication. Write your story together

Shop Now

Home

City Tribune

Devon retain Premier Division title as Athenry held to a draw

Author: Mike Rafferty
~ 3 minutes read

Published: 28 April 2023

From this week's Galway City Tribune

er Wrap with Mike Rafferty

Having just taken over as leaders of the Premier Division for the first time following their win over their joint fellow table toppers Athenry last week, Salthill Devon were this week crowned champions without kicking a ball as their closest rivals failed to collect all the points on offer in their last game in midweek.

A circular button with a white background and a grey border, containing the text "Go Up" in a grey sans-serif font.

Athenry's failure to beat St Bernard's mean they have finished the season two points behind a Devon side that still has a game left to play, away to Colga which is scheduled to be played on Saturday week.

While the situation at the top is clear cut and sorted, matters are much more complex in the lower of the table where relegation is an issue. West United and Corrib Celtic are the bottom two for now, with St Bernard's, Hibernians and Renmore are all enjoying a slender advantage over them as matters stand.

There are just seven matches left to be played in the division and apart from the Colga and Salthill Devon game, the other six are all involving teams in or just above the relegation zone.

This article first appeared in the print edition of the Galway City Tribune. You can support our journalism by subscribing to the Galway City Tribune HERE. A one-year digital subscription costs just €89.00. The print edition is in shops every Friday.

Bottom side West need to win their last two games to at best force a play-off to stay in the division – anything less and they are gone. It is the same story with Corrib Celtic – who ironically have won their last two games, after only winning one of their previous 14.

The meeting of West United and Hibernians in South Park at 11am this Sunday will have a crucial bearing on what the outcome could be in the relegation area.

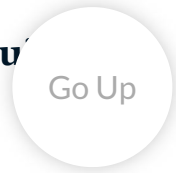

For more, read this week's Galway City Tribune.

Connacht Tribune Digital Edition App

Download the Connacht Tribune Digital Edition App to access to Galway's best-selling newspaper.

Click HERE to download it for iPhone and iPad from Apple's App Store, or HERE to get the Android Version from Google Play.

Or purchase the Digital Edition for PC, Mac or Laptop from Pagesu HERE.

Get the Connacht Tribune Live app

The Connacht Tribune Live app is the home of everything that is happening in Galway City and county. It's completely FREE and features all the latest news, sport and information on what's on in your area. Click HERE to download it for iPhone and iPad from Apple's App Store, or HERE to get the Android Version from Google Play.

Share story:

More like this:

Colaiste an Eachreidh students call on Galway public to enter road safety awards

Galway Bay fm newsroom – Students at Colaiste an Eachreidh in Athenry are encouraging peopl...

County planners reject plans for significant housing estate in Athenry

Galway Bay fm newsroom – Plans for a new housing estate in Athenry consisting of 91 new hom...

SIGN UP TO GET WEEKLY SPORTS UPDATES

Your Email

Subscribe

FIND US HERE

CONNACHT
TRIBUNE
APP

CONNACHT
TRIBUNE
DIGITAL
EDITION [E-PAPER]

Explore the Connacht Tribune

- Home
- Sports
- Entertainment
- Property
- Farming
- Services

- News
- Life
- Business
- Motors
- Opinion
- Contact

Privacy Policy Cookie Policy

© Copyright 2023 - Ourside Agency