

FAI chief to cut ribbon on Renmore clubhouse

Renmore AFC's new clubhouse.

THE Chief Executive of the FAI, John Delaney, will travel to Galway on Saturday week to officially open the new Renmore AFC clubhouse along with club chairman and newly-elected Mayor of Galway., Michael Crowe.

The ribbon will be cut on the new facility on Saturday July 17 at 3pm, and the club's committee is extending an invite to all those involved with the club, both past and present, to attend the ceremony.

The club is planning a day full of activities including bouncy castles, face painting, 5-a-sides and football-themed activities such as skills displays. There will also be some Irish dancing, including a display by dance troupe Mystic Force. Food and drink will be available on the day, and the club is hoping the wider Renmore community will also attend the opening.

The blessing of building will take place at 3pm officiated by Fr Michael Mulkerrins of Renmore parish.
