Mayo were made rue these misses in the 33rd minute when Farragher and Landers set-up Mernagh for an easy tap home and the game was quickly wrapped-up in a two minute spell just before the interval when Dermot Coll finished off Landers' centre and then Mayo 'keeper John McCallion spilled a Landers' shot to the net.

Galway relaxed their grip somewhat on the resumption and they did not add the fifth until the 75th minute when Landers volleyed to the net after Farragher's cross had only been partly-cleared. Jordan had an injury-time consolation goal for Mayo from the penalty-spot after Hanly had toppled Healy.
