

Packer Backers Scholarship

The purpose of the Packer Backers is to support, encourage and assist our West Fargo High School students, school and community.

Purpose: The Packer Backers Scholarship Program is focused on supporting students pursuing career training or post-secondary education following graduation from West Fargo High School. The scholarship recognizes students who participate in extracurricular activities and actively and intentionally make a positive contribution to the community around them.

Eligibility: To be considered for a Career Training or Post-Secondary Education Scholarship:

1. The applicant must be a senior at West Fargo High School.
2. The applicant's parent or guardian must be a member of the Packer Backers as of January 1 of the application year.
3. The applicant must be enrolled or planning to enroll in a regionally or nationally accredited university, college or vocational school on a full-time basis.
4. The applicant must submit the completed application by email to wfpackerbackers@gmail.com in its entirety by the application deadline.

Requirements to be submitted together:

- Eligibility Confirmation
- Application completed in full.
- Letter of recommendation from school personnel, teacher, counselor, coach, advisor or principal.
- Certificate of Accuracy and Permission to Use

Application Accepted: January 1, through March 15 at 11:59 p.m.

Selection: The Packer Backers Scholarship Committee will review applications and award based on available funding. Recipients will be notified by phone and/or email in April.

Awards: $500 one-time scholarship distributed directly to the Facility or Institution in which recipient is enrolled on a full-time basis for the following academic year.
