

Biography

ISAM MOURSY Pole General Manager – Africa GE Aviation

Isam Moursy is Pole General Manager of GE Aviation overseeing Africa.

A veteran of GE with over 25 years of experience, Isam is responsible for driving growth of GE Aviation in Africa by developing and expanding customer relationships and long-term public and private partnerships across the region. He joined GE Aviation in July 2010.

Isam has a diverse background in general management, sales, service and engineering. He was the General Manager for GE Enterprise Solutions responsible for the Middle East and Africa markets. Prior to this position, he led GE Healthcare's operations in Middle East and Africa, driving growth opportunities in the healthcare sector in the region. Isam also spent the first 15 years of his career at GE in the energy business in various commercial positions.

Isam has an extensive international experience starting his career with Schlumberger. He joined the company as a Senior Field Engineer in Brazil and assumed similar positions later on in Somalia, Syria, Egypt and the UAE.

Isam holds a B.S.c in Electrical Engineering from Cairo University, Egypt and a MBA from the American University in Cairo, Egypt.

Isam Moursy is married and has three children he is based with his family in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.